

eLibrary

Collections of digital references used by instructional media + magic, inc. and Sigma Systems Inc. in their research. The library is divided into three major collections.

The General Archive has become the primary collection of electronic documents in portable document format (PDF).

Audio and video presentations are found in a separate Media collection as mp3 and mp4 files with supplementary material. Resources include spreadsheets, XML schemas, and other files that may need to be used in the original format.