

Localisation Industry Standards Association

“Founded in 1990 as a non-profit association, LISA (Localisation Industry Standards Association) is the premier organization for the GILT (Globalization, Internationalization, Localization, and Translation) business communities. ... LISA provides best practice, business guidelines, and multilingual communication standards for translation and localization workflow, and enterprise globalization. LISA Initiatives, Conferences, and Training Programs help companies implement cost-effective international business model.”

From www.LISA.org, 7 January 2003