Handbook AS-353

September 2003
Transmittal Letter

- A. Introduction. One of the key strategies of the Postal Service's Transformation Plan is to achieve growth by adding value for customers. The proper collection, use, and protection of customer and employee information is a key part of that value proposition.
- B. New Handbook. This new handbook replaces the following:
- Portion of subchapter 35 (Records and Release of Information) and the Appendix (Privacy Act Systems of Records) of the Administrative Support Manual (ASM).
- C. Explanation. This handbook provides direction and guidance for Postal Service employees, suppliers, or other authorized users with access to Postal Service records and information resources. The handbook also provides direction and guidance for customers, employees, suppliers, or other individuals on understanding how their information is collected, maintained, used, disclosed, and safeguarded.
- D. Distribution. This handbook is distributed to all appropriate headquarters, area, district, and local Post Office employees. Please use PS Form 7380, MDC Supply Requisition, to request additional copies from the Material Distribution Center. This handbook is also published online at <http://blue.usps.gov/cpm/hbkid.htm>.
- E. Comments. Submit questions, comments, or suggestions regarding this handbook to:

1 Introduction

1-1 Purpose of This Handbook

This handbook, AS-353, Guide to Privacy and the Freedom of Information Act, describes the Postal Service's policies and procedures about the privacy of information relating to customers, employees, or other individuals, and the release and protection of Postal Service records. The Postal Service is mandated by law, and has adopted policies, to protect the privacy of its customers, employees, individuals, and suppliers. The Postal Service is also required to make its records available to the public consistent with the Freedom of Information Act and good business practices.

1-2 Customer Trust and Privacy Protection

For more than two centuries, the Postal Service has maintained a brand that customers trust regarding protecting the privacy and security of their information. As the privacy landscape evolves, the Privacy Office keeps up with developing legal and policy frameworks, new technologies, and best-in-class business models and practices. The Privacy Office has developed its customer privacy policy and procedures on a synthesis of the best business models and practices of the public and private sector. This includes established government agency laws, regulations, and guidelines, as well as privacy principles and best practices followed by the private sector.

1-3 How to Use this Handbook

The four chapters and the appendix to this handbook are organized to contain the following information:

This part of the handbook...	contains...
Chapter 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General information about this handbook.• Overall and specific responsibilities of Postal Service officials and employees.
Chapter 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Relevant privacy laws.• Guidelines.• Postal Service policies.

This part of the handbook...	contains...
Chapter 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Procedures related to privacy requirements, including the Privacy Act and privacy policies.
Chapter 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Procedures related to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
Appendix	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Privacy Act protections. • Postal Service systems of records covered by the Privacy Act.

1-4 Handbook Application

This handbook covers the laws, policies, and procedures for all Postal Service records, and information related to customers, employees, individuals, and suppliers. This handbook applies to Postal Service employees, suppliers, or other authorized users with access to Postal Service records and information resources. The policies and procedures in this handbook cover the following types of information or information systems:

- Postal Service records.
- Information related to customers, employees, other individuals, and suppliers.
- Technologies, information systems, infrastructure, applications, products, services, and other information resources associated with collecting, maintaining, using, disclosing, and safeguarding customer, employee, or other individuals' information.

1-5 Roles and Responsibilities

1-5.1 General Responsibility

All Postal Service employees, business partners and suppliers, and other authorized users are responsible for following the policies and procedures in this handbook.

1-5.2 Specific Responsibility

1-5.2.1 Officers, Managers, and Employees

All officers, business and line managers, supervisors, and other employees are responsible for implementing privacy policies as required by this handbook and their Postal Service duties. Officers and managers ensure compliance with privacy policies through organizations and information resources under their direction, and provide resources required to appropriately protect the privacy of customer, employee, or other individuals' information.

1-5.2.2 Suppliers, Business Partners, and Customers

Suppliers, business partners, and customers are responsible for the following:

- a. Suppliers and Business Partners. All Postal Service suppliers and business partners who develop or have access to information resources that contain customer, employee, or other individuals' data, or who help to develop or implement a Postal Service web site or marketing e-mail campaign, are responsible for complying with Postal Service privacy policies and related business, security, and contracting practices.
- b. Customers. Customers must follow the applicable procedures for privacy and FOIA.

1-5.2.3 Chief Privacy Officer

The chief privacy officer (CPO) is responsible for the following:

- a. Developing and implementing policies, processes, and procedures for privacy, records, and FOIA.
- b. Reviewing privacy impact assessments and determining information sensitivity during the Business Impact Assessment (BIA) process.
- c. Advising management on strategic direction and trends.
- d. Evaluating technology that impacts privacy.
- e. Providing guidance on privacy and records policies.
- f. Directing the activities of the Privacy Office and the Records Office, and reporting to the Consumer Advocate.

1-5.2.5 Freedom of Information Act Coordinator

The FOIA coordinator, which is an ad hoc position located within each area and district office, is responsible for the following:

- a. Providing procedural guidance, upon request, to records custodians in a geographical area.
- b. Helping the manager, records office, with national records management activities, such as annual reporting of local FOIA and Privacy Act activities.

1-5.2.6 Records Custodian

Records custodians are responsible for ensuring that records within their facilities or organizations are managed according to Postal Service policies. Vice presidents are the custodians of records maintained at Headquarters. In the field, the records custodian is the head of a postal facility such as an area, district, post office, or other postal installation that maintains Postal Service records. Senior medical personnel are the custodians of restricted medical records maintained within postal facilities. The custodian of Employee Assistance Program (EAP) records is the Postal Service counselor, a supplier, or the Public Health Service, whichever provided the services.

1-5.2.7 Manager, Corporate Information Security

The manager of the corporate information security office is responsible for ensuring compliance with information security policies, including the protection of information resources containing customer, employee, or other individuals' information.

1-5.2.8 General Counsel

The general counsel or designee is responsible for deciding administrative appeals filed under the Privacy Act and FOIA. Appropriate legal counsel should be consulted by FOIA coordinators, records custodians, and others with legal questions about the Privacy Act or FOIA.

Contact the general counsel at the following address:

1-6 Definitions

The following terms are used in this handbook.

1-6.1 Record

Recorded information, regardless of media, format, or physical characteristics, including electronic data developed or received by the Postal Service that it maintains in its custody or is maintained on its behalf. Machine-readable records are a collection of logically-related data treated as a unit. Records created during Postal Service business activities are Postal Service property. Postal Service records should be marked, for instance confidential or restricted, if the records should be protected from access or disclosure.

1-6.2 System of Records

A file, database, or program from which information about customers, employees, or individuals is retrieved by name or other identifier.

1-6.3 Customers

External customers of the Postal Service, including individual consumers and business customers.

1-6.4 Individual

Individual consumer, employee, or other individual.

2 Laws, Guidelines, and Policies

2-1 The Best of Public and Private Practices

The Postal Service is subject to the privacy protection requirements of the Privacy Act, and the document access requirements of the FOIA. The Postal Service has also developed a customer privacy policy based on federal laws and guidelines and the best practices of the private sector. The privacy statutes, guidelines, and Postal Service policies described in this section provide a comprehensive privacy-protection framework.

2-2 Federal Laws

2-2.1 The Postal Reorganization Act

The Postal Service is restricted from sharing customer or mailing information by the Postal Reorganization Act, Title 39 of the United States Code (U.S.C.). Under 39 U.S.C. 412, the Postal Service cannot make available to the public, by any means or for any purpose, any mailing or other list of names or addresses (past or present) of customers or other persons, unless specifically permitted by statute.

2-2.2 The Privacy Act

The Privacy Act provides privacy protections for personal information maintained by agencies. A summary of the Privacy Act follows.

- a. General. The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, applies to federal agencies, including the Postal Service. The Act provides privacy protections for personal information that agencies maintain in a “system of records.” A system of records is a file, database, or program from which personal information is retrieved by name or other identifier. A full description of Privacy Act protections and Postal Service systems of records is contained in the appendix. Postal Service regulations regarding the Privacy Act are located in 39 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 266 and 268. Procedures relating to the Privacy Act are described in chapter 3.
- b. Requirements. When an agency maintains a system of records, it must publish a notice that describes the system in the Federal Register. The notice must document how the agency manages personal information within the system. This includes how information is collected, used, disclosed, stored, and discarded. It also includes how individuals can exercise their rights to obtain access to and amend information relating to themselves contained in the system. The Privacy Act further requires that the Postal Service provide an appropriate privacy notice to individuals when they are asked to provide information about themselves.

- c. Penalties. The Privacy Act provides criminal penalties, in the form of fines of up to $5,000, for any officer or employee who:
- (1) Willfully maintains a system of records that contains information about an individual without giving appropriate notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) Knowing that disclosure is prohibited, willfully discloses information about an individual in any manner to any person or agency not entitled to receive it.

The Privacy Act also provides criminal penalties, in the form of fines of up to $5,000, for any person who knowingly and willfully requests or obtains under false pretenses any record about another individual.

2-2.3 The Freedom of Information Act

The FOIA, 5 U.S.C. 552, provides the public with a right of access to records (hard copy and electronic), that are maintained by federal agencies, including the Postal Service. The FOIA contains exemptions that authorize the withholding of certain information. Postal Service regulations implementing the FOIA are located in 39 CFR 265. Postal Service procedures governing the disclosure of information under FOIA are described in chapter 4.

2-2.4 The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLB), Title V, 15 U.S.C. 6801–6827, governs the treatment of personal information when certain financial services are provided in the private sector. The GLB requires that customers be given notice about data practices, and choices as to whether data can be shared with unaffiliated parties. Examples of financial services include banking activities or functions; wire or monetary transfers; printing, selling, or cashing checks; or providing credit services. Financial services do not include accepting payment by check or credit card issued by another entity. The Postal Service has adopted policies to comply voluntarily with GLB for its products and services that would be considered financial services if offered by a private sector company.

2-2.5 The Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act

The Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), 15 U.S.C. 6501–6505, is intended to protect children’s privacy on the Internet. COPPA applies to operators of commercial web sites who direct the web site to, or knowingly collect information from, children under the age of 13. COPPA requires such operators to provide notice of data practices, and to obtain parental consent before collecting children's personal information, unless certain exceptions apply. The Postal Service has adopted policies to comply voluntarily with COPPA in its web site operations.

2-3 Federal Agency Guidelines

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) have issued guidelines related to privacy and data management practices for the private sector and federal agencies, respectively. The Postal Service has adopted policies and practices based on these guidelines.

2-3.1 Federal Trade Commission Privacy Principles

The FTC has established fair information principles that it recommends the private sector provide to their customers. The principles are notice, choice, access, security, and redress. Notice provides customers with information about the organization's data management practices before personal information is collected from them. Choice concerns obtaining the customer's consent before using the information for a purpose other than why it was collected (i.e., secondary uses). Secondary uses include other internal uses, such as to cross- or up-sell different products, or to share the information with third parties. Access provides customers a way to access and amend information the organization maintains about them. Security involves measures to protect against loss and the unauthorized access or disclosure of information. Redress provides a means by which customer questions and complaints can be received and processed.

2-3.2 OMB Privacy Guidelines

Since the Privacy Act was passed in 1974, the OMB has developed numerous guidelines relating to protecting the privacy of personal information collected by government agencies. Guidelines include the following publications:

- Guidance on Inter-Agency Sharing of Personal Data — Protecting Personal Privacy (12/2000).
- Privacy Policies and Data Collection on Federal Web Sites (6/2000).
- Guidance and Model Language For Federal Web Site Privacy Policies (6/1999).
- Privacy and Personal Information in Federal Records (1/1999).
- Privacy Act Implementation, Guidelines and Responsibilities (7/1975).

OMB emphasizes the Privacy Act and its role in new technologies. OMB gives particular attention to certain technologies on agency web sites, including web analyses tools such as cookies, and requires notice and agency head approval for their use.

2-4 Postal Service Policies

2-4.1 Customer Privacy Policy

The Postal Service customer privacy policy provides privacy protections for all of its customers, appropriately tailored for each customer segment (consumers and businesses). The policy applies to customer information collected via all channels, including hard copy forms, call centers, e-mail, and www.usps.com. The policy also includes specific notice and limitations regarding web analyses tools used on www.usps.com. A full statement of the customer privacy policy is available via a link on www.usps.com, in the footer on each page, or by contacting the CPO at the address in section 1-5.2.3. The Postal Service has also established policies to protect business customer information that is maintained in a system of records. See appendix. Procedures relating to privacy are described in chapter 3.

2-4.2 Marketing E-mail Policy

The Postal Service uses e-mail to communicate with current and potential customers. The Postal Service marketing e-mail policy applies when the Postal Service or its supplier sends an e-mail message to a customer, or prospective customer, which markets a different product than the customer may already receive from the Postal Service. Procedures for implementing the marketing e-mail policy are in chapter 3. The full text of the marketing e-mail policy is available in Management Instruction (MI) AS 350-2003-6, Marketing E-mail.

2-4.3 Supplier Policy

Suppliers and business partners must adhere to the Postal Service privacy policies if they have access to customer, employee, or other individuals' information; help to build or operate a web site; or conduct a marketing e-mail campaign. The contracts and agreements, whether or not covered by the Purchasing Manual (PM), must include an appropriate privacy clause(s). See PM section 1.6, and clause 1-1, Privacy Protection.

2-4.4 Monitoring of Postal Service Equipment

The Postal Service reserves the right to access and monitor computer use and information contained in or passing through its information resources, including the contents of all messages sent over its electronic messaging systems. The Corporate Information Security Office and the Privacy Office have established policies and procedures to conduct monitoring, which are contained in MI AS-840-2003-3, Electronic Messaging (E-mail).

3 Privacy Procedures

3-1 General

This chapter incorporates all privacy requirements, including Privacy Act and privacy policies, described in chapter 2. The chapter is organized by activities that trigger privacy requirements, and describes procedures that must be followed.

- Section 3-2 — Collecting information from customers, employees, or other individuals.
- Section 3-3 — Managing information relating to customers, employees, or other individuals.
- Section 3-4 — Requests for information by customers, employees, or other individuals.
- Section 3-5 — Disclosing customer, employee, or other individuals' information to third parties.
- Section 3-6 — Operating a customer web site.
- Section 3-7 — Sending marketing e-mail.
- Section 3-8 — Entering into a contract or business agreement.
- Section 3-9 — Computer matching programs.

3-2 Collecting Information from Customers, Employees, or Other Individuals

3-2.1 Collection

The Postal Service may only collect and maintain information relating to customers, employees, or other individuals that is needed or relevant to carry out a purpose authorized by statute or by executive order. To the greatest extent practical, information should be collected directly from the customer, employee, or individual. The Postal Service may not collect or maintain information describing how individuals exercise their rights protected by the First Amendment, unless the Postmaster General determines that the information is necessary to carry out a statutory purpose of the Postal Service.

3-2.2 Privacy Notice

The following describes privacy notice requirements.

- a. General. When the Postal Service asks customers, employees, or other individuals to provide information about themselves, and that information is maintained in a system of records, the Postal Service must provide an appropriate privacy notice. A system of records is a file, database, or program from which information about customers, employees, or individuals is retrieved by name or other identifier. The Privacy Office must approve all new forms (hard copy and electronic) that collect customer, employee, or other individuals' information.
- b. Content. The privacy notice must contain the following information:
 - (1) For individual consumers, employees, or other individuals, the privacy notice must explain:
 - (a) The reason why the information is being collected.
 - (b) Whether providing it is mandatory or voluntary, and the effects of not providing it.
 - (c) The routine uses or disclosures that may be made of it.
 - (d) Which statute or executive order authorizes the collection.
 - (e) That the customer privacy policy is available on www.usps.com (consumers only).
 - (2) For business customers, the notice is a statement that the customer privacy policy is available on www.usps.com.
- c. How to Provide Privacy Notice. The following describes how to provide a privacy notice, if required under section 3-2.2a., at different points where information is collected from customers, employees, or other individuals.

Contact Point	Postal Service Procedures to Provide a Privacy Notice
In Person (Retail, interviews, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Content of the notice must meet requirements of section 3-2.2b. • Provide the notice in writing or orally. If oral, provide the notice before collecting data, and include a note with the maintained information that notice was provided orally.
Hard Copy Forms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Content of the notice must meet requirements of section 3-2.2b. • Place the notice on the form near where data is collected, or provide a separate privacy notice before collecting the data (e.g., Notice 70 or 70A).

Contact Point	Postal Service Procedures to Provide a Privacy Notice
Telephone	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide callers with a notice that meets the content requirements of section 3-2.2b. via an automation system or orally. If automated, the system must deliver a statement, when the caller is transferred to an option where information may be collected and maintained in a system of records, that the Postal Service has a privacy policy, and allow the caller to access the full content of the notice on the menu of options. Alternatively, call center agents may provide oral notice of the policy in accordance with in-person procedures in this table. • If a caller requests additional information, the call center agent should mail the caller a privacy notice, or direct the caller, if a customer, to the www.usps.com privacy policy.
Online	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For employees, a privacy notice that meets the content requirement of section 3-2.2b. must be available on the screen near where data is collected. • For customers, provide a link to the privacy policy on every page on www.usps.com.
E-mail	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If data may be collected as a result of an e-mail interaction and placed in a system of records, provide a privacy notice meeting the content requirements of section 3-2.2b. • Place the notice in the same e-mail that solicits data, or include the notice in response to e-mails from the customer, employee, or other individual. • For information on marketing e-mail policy, see MI AS 350-2003-6.

3-2.3 Customer Choice

When customers provide their information when they register for or request a product or service, and the Postal Service maintains the information in a system of records, they must be given a choice if the information may be used subsequently for a secondary use. Secondary uses include marketing a different product to the customer, or sharing the information externally with third parties (other than Postal Service business partners or suppliers). Follow these procedures only if the Postal Service may want to contact the customer in the future for a secondary use.

- a. Choice for Consumers requires “Opt-in.” Opt-in choice requires an affirmative expression by the consumer that authorizes any secondary use.
- b. Choice for Business Customers requires “Opt-out.” Opt-out choice requires that the customer take an affirmative step to prevent any secondary use.
- c. Customers must be able to freely modify their choice. Customers must have the ability to modify their previous decision so that their current choice is incorporated.

The following table provides procedures on how to provide choice at different points where information is collected from a customer.

Contact Point	Postal Service Procedures to Provide Choice
In Person / Telephone	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Employees may direct the customer to www.usps.com to create a profile and select choice; may direct the customer to the Privacy Office at the address in section 1-5.2.3; or may provide the customer a privacy brochure that provides information about choice.
Hard Copy Forms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide text and opportunity to express choice for secondary uses on consumer forms.
Online	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide customers who register on www.usps.com with the ability to create a profile, and select and amend their choices.

3-3 Managing Information Relating to Customers, Employees, or Other Individuals

3-3.1 General

The following describes procedures that must be followed if information about a customer, employee, or individual is maintained in a system of records. A system of records is a file, database, or program from which information about customers, employees, or individuals is retrieved by name or other identifier. These procedures must be followed whether the information is obtained directly from the customer, employee, or individual, or from some other source.

3-3.2 Managing a System of Records

Manage each system of records as follows:

- a. Authorized System of Records. If a manager or employee maintains information about a customer, employee, or individual in a system of records, that system of records must be authorized. A description of authorized systems of records is listed in the appendix.
- b. Data Management Requirements. The applicable system of records in the appendix describes how information within the system must be managed. Specific data management requirements for each system of records include:
 - (1) Locations where records covered by the system are maintained.
 - (2) Types of customers, employees, or individuals whose records are contained in the system.

- (3) Types of records contained in the system.
- (4) Legal authority for maintaining the system.
- (5) Purpose(s) for which the system is maintained.
- (6) Permissible routine uses (disclosures) of records within the system.
- (7) Procedures for record storage, retrieval, safeguards, retention and disposal.
- (8) Contact information for the system manager.
- (9) Procedures for customers, employees, or individuals to access and request amendment of records.

3-3.3 Creating, Amending, or Deleting a System of Records

Create, amend, or delete a system of records as follows:

- a. General. Employees or managers must notify the Records Office if they are maintaining information about customers, employees, or other individuals in a system of records that is not authorized. The Records Office manages the process for creating, amending, or deleting an authorized system of records. The Records Office must accomplish the following steps before a program or system can be implemented or amended:
 - (1) Draft a notice creating or amending a system of records.
 - (2) Send the notice to the CPO and relevant Postal Service departments for review and approval.
 - (3) Forward the notice to Congress and the OMB.
 - (4) Publish the notice in the Federal Register.
- b. Criteria for Amending a System. The manager(s) of a system must notify the Records Office if planning to make changes to a program or system which require the authorized system of records to be amended. The following are examples of such changes:
 - (1) Changing the types of individuals or the scope of the population on whom the records are maintained.
 - (2) Expanding the types of information maintained.
 - (3) Altering the purpose for why information is collected.
 - (4) Altering the manner in which the records are stored or retrieved so as to change the nature or scope of these records (an example is a change from a manual to an automated system).
 - (5) Changing or adding a routine use (disclosures from the system).
- c. Deleting a System. When a need for maintaining records in a system of records no longer exists, the system manager must consult with the Records Office about deleting the system of records.

3-3.4 Business Impact Assessment and Security

Comply with Business Impact Assessment (BIA) and security requirements as follows:

- a. Business Impact Assessment (BIA). The BIA is a document that addresses privacy and information security requirements of a new or existing information resource. Regarding privacy, the BIA ensures privacy compliance, and also determines the sensitivity of the system, which contributes to establishing the security plan for the resource. The executive sponsor of the information resource is responsible for completing and adhering to the BIA. Completed BIAs must be submitted to the CPO and the manager of corporate information security. Information regarding the BIA can be found in Handbook AS-805, Information Security. Contact the Privacy Office for privacy-related questions about the BIA or process.
- b. Security. Information about customers, employees, or other individuals must be kept secure, in accordance with Handbook AS-805, Information Security.
- c. Testing. The use of customer, employee, or other individuals' information for testing purposes must meet all written approval requirements found in Handbook AS-805, Information Security. Requirements for approval apply regardless of where the testing is conducted.

3-4 Requests for Information by Customers, Employees, or Other Individuals

Customers, employees, or individuals may request and obtain information regarding themselves that the Postal Service maintains in a system of records as described in this section.

3-4.1 Requests to Access Information

The following procedures govern customer, employee, or individual requests regarding whether the Postal Service maintains information about them, and to access that information, as well as Postal Service responses to such requests.

- a. How to Request Information. Customers, employees, or other individuals should follow these procedures to request information.
 - (1) General. Customers, employees, or other individuals who want to know whether the Postal Service maintains information about them in a system of records, and obtain access to that information, should follow the procedures described in the applicable system of records. The procedures for each system of records are listed in the appendix. A records custodian may, when deemed appropriate, request that an individual provide either a notarized statement or a statement signed under penalty of perjury stating that they are the person they claim to be.

- (2) Where to direct the request. Direct the request to the records custodian, if known, or to the manager, records office, at the address in section 1-5.2.4. Employee requests to review or copy a record should be made to the installation where the record is kept. Employees requesting retired official personnel folders (OPF) may direct the request to any office and specify the installation where review is desired.
 - (3) Content of request. The requester should:
 - (a) Specify the information sought, and include other information as required by the applicable system of records (in appendix).
 - (b) Specify the system of records by name or number, as shown in the appendix, or otherwise reasonably identify the system of records.
 - (c) Provide enough information to identify the requester and to identify and locate the record.
 - (d) Include any other relevant information, such as preferences as to where and how to receive the information.
 - (e) Submit the request on letterhead, if available, if the request is made on behalf of an organization.
 - (4) Customers registered on www.usps.com. Customers that are registered users on www.usps.com may access their personal profile by logging into their account with their user name and password.
- b. Responding to Requests:
- (1) Determine Sufficiency of Request. Before disclosing any records, including whether records exist, the custodian should review the sufficiency of the request. Oral requests for records that are available to the public under section 4-4 may be answered by telephone. All other requests must be made in person or in writing, and follow the procedures in section 3-4.1a. The custodian must seek clarification from the requester if the information supplied to locate and identify the record is insufficient. Misdirected requests must be forwarded to the appropriate location with a copy of the referral to the requester.
 - (2) Respond to the Requester. Custodians must acknowledge requests for records within 10 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) of receipt. Custodians should date stamp the request upon receipt. If requested records are not immediately available, the custodian must give the requester a date of availability. If records cannot be found or have been destroyed, the custodian must inform the requester.
 - (3) Provide Records. Once records are located, provide them to the requester as soon as practical, unless they should be withheld under section 3-4.1b.(6). The custodian must provide releasable records to the requester in writing or in person as follows.

- (a) In writing: Send the requested information or copies of records to the requester via certified mail, return receipt service requested, as soon as any required fees or statement of release are received.
 - (b) In person: Notify the requester when and where records will be available for inspection or copying, and comply with the requester's instructions if feasible. When a requester reviews records in person, the custodian or designee must be present and observe the requester's handling of the records. The custodian or designee must do the following:
 - Verify the requester's identity by checking official credentials such as a driver's license or similar identification.
 - Allow the requester to copy the record manually or with a copying machine.
 - Collect the records and any fees incurred.
 - Have the requester sign a statement that he or she reviewed the records.
- (4) Additional instructions for response to employee requests. Records are usually available for inspection and copying during regular business hours at the installation where the record is kept. The custodian may, however, designate other reasonable locations and times for inspection and copying of some or all of the records. Employees who want to review or copy their own records must do so on their own time, except as provided for under collective bargaining agreements.

Forward requests for a retired OPF to the installation indicated by the requester. The custodian at the installation where the review is to take place must determine if the information is releasable under section 3-4.1b.(6). If releasable, the custodian can obtain the OPF by sending an SF 127, Request for Official Personnel Folder, to:

NATIONAL PERSONNEL RECORDS CENTER
ST LOUIS, MO 63132-5100

When the custodian receives the OPF, the custodian must notify the requester that the information is available for review. After the requester reviews the OPF, the custodian must keep the folder for 30 days. If at the end of the 30 days, there is no further need to keep the OPF, then the custodian must return it by registered mail to the National Personnel Records Center.

- (5) Additional Instructions for response to customer requests. Customers must be given access to their information maintained by the Postal Service, except for confidential business data created by the Postal Service or derived from third parties, or if

- exempt under section 3-4.1b.(6). Customers may not be given nonpublic or confidential information about other customers or the Postal Service.
- (6) Denying Requests. The Postal Service may only deny customer, employee, or individual requests to know whether the Postal Service maintains records about them, and/or to obtain access to those records, if the requester does not follow procedures in section 3-4.1, or if the information is exempt under section 3-4.1b.(7). The custodian must consult with appropriate counsel before denying a request. Denials must be in writing and signed by the custodian or designee. The document must state the reasons for the denial and advise the requester of the right to appeal to the general counsel. See section 3-4.3.
- (7) Exceptions to Release of Information. The following information may not be released in response to customer, employee, or other individual requests for information about themselves.
- (a) Confidential Sources. Information that identifies an individual who has requested and has been expressly promised anonymity in providing information to the Postal Service. This exception applies only to Postal Inspection Service records (which may be disclosed only on the authority of the chief postal inspector); preemployment investigation records; recruiting, examining, training, and placement records; equal employment opportunity discrimination complaint investigations and counseling records; and postmaster selection records.
 - (b) Civil Actions. Records compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding such as a lawsuit or administrative hearing.
 - (c) Law Enforcement. Records of disclosures of information to law enforcement agencies.
 - (d) Testing Material. Information within records that might compromise testing or examination materials.
 - (e) Registers. Registers for positions to be filled. (On written request, an individual may be told whether prospects for appointment are good, fair, or unfavorable.)
 - (f) Medical Records. Medical or psychological records (including those received from the Department of Veterans Affairs, Public Health Service, or Office of Workers' Compensation Programs) when the medical officer determines that disclosure could have an adverse effect on the subject individual. These records may be made available to a physician designated in writing by the individual. In such cases, an accounting of disclosure must be filed. See section 3-4.4.
 - (g) Uncirculated Supervisors' Notes. Information about individuals in the form of uncirculated personal notes kept by Postal Service personnel, such as employees, supervisors, counselors, or investigators, which are not circulated to other persons. If notes are circulated, they become official records in a system of records, and must be shown on request to the employee to whom they pertain. Official evaluations, appraisals, or estimates of potential must be made available to the employee to whom they pertain.

- (h) National Agency Checks. Results of national agency checks and written inquiry investigations (NACI) conducted by the Office of Personnel Management. Advise individuals requesting NACI records to send their requests to:

DIRECTOR
OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
NACI CENTER
BOYERS PA 16018-0001

- (i) Exempt Systems of Records. Information contained in any systems of records that is exempt from disclosure as allowed by the Privacy Act.
- (8) Recording Responses. For requests from individuals, the custodian must complete Form 8170, Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Request Report, in accordance with section 4-9. The custodian must also keep an account of the disclosure in accordance with section 3-4.4.

3-4.2 Requests to Amend Information

This section covers procedures by which customers, employees, or other individuals may request amendment of information about themselves that the Postal Service maintains in a system of records, and how the Postal Service responds to these requests.

- a. How to Submit a Request. Customers, employees, or other individuals should submit a request as follows:

- (1) Oral Requests. Oral requests can be made if the change concerns an error or correction that is unlikely to be disputed (for example, correcting a misspelling, misprint, mistake in computation, or other obvious error). The custodian may have the record changed without formally notifying the requester of the change. If the request may result in a dispute, the custodian must require that the request be made in writing.
- (a) Written Requests. Except as stated above, all requests must be in writing. The request must be submitted to the custodian in accordance with the procedures described in the applicable system of records in the appendix. Requesters must clearly identify themselves, the record in question, and the change desired. Requesters must state

- the reasons for the change, which may be relevance, accuracy, timeliness, or completeness.
- (b) Customers registered on www.usps.com. Customers that are registered users on www.usps.com may amend their personal profile by logging into their account with their user name and password.
- b. How to Respond to a Request. Custodians must follow these procedures to respond to a request:
- (1) Acknowledge the request. Within 10 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) of any written request to amend a record, the custodian must acknowledge the request in writing and ask the requester for any additional information necessary for action on the request.
 - (2) Act on the request. Within 30 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays), the custodian must do the following:
 - (a) Inquire. Obtain more information as needed to determine whether amendment is appropriate.
 - (b) Amend the information as necessary. Correct or eliminate any information found incomplete, inaccurate, untimely, or irrelevant to the purpose of the system of records.
 - (c) Notify the requester about the revised record. Advise the requester of the change, and supply a courtesy copy of the revised record where practical. The custodian must also send a revised record to any person or agency to whom an accounting of disclosures has been made under section 3-4.4.
 - (d) Denial. Notify the requester in writing if any requested changes are denied in whole or in part, including the reasons for the denial. The denial must include notification that the requester may submit a statement of disagreement to be filed with the disputed record, or may appeal the decision. See section 3-4.3.

3-4.3 Appeals and Customer Redress

The following procedures apply to appeals by customers, employees, or other individuals, as well as customer questions and inquiries regarding Postal Service customer privacy policies.

- a. Appeals. Customers, employees, or other individuals may appeal denials of their request as to whether the Postal Service maintains records about them, or to access or amend those records. Appeals must be in writing and directed to the general counsel within 30 days of the date of denial, or within 90 days from a request if the appeal concerns a failure of the custodian to make a determination. The general counsel may consider late appeals. The letter of appeal must include:

- (1) Reasonable identification of the record the requester wishes to access or amend.
- (2) A statement of the action appealed and relief sought.
- (3) Copies of the request, the notification of denial, and any other related correspondence.

The general counsel should make a final decision within 30 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) of the date of receipt of the appeal.

- b. Customer Redress. Customers who have questions or inquiries about Postal Service customer privacy policies, or treatment of their data under the policies, should direct questions to their local Postal Service contact, the program manager, or the Privacy Office at the address in section 1-5.2.3. Postal Service employees should contact the Privacy Office if they are unable to satisfy or answer the customer's inquiry.

3-4.4 Accounting of Disclosures

- a. Requirement. Custodians must keep an accurate accounting of every disclosure of information about an individual covered by a system of records, even if the disclosure is made at the individual's request. The only exceptions are as follows:
 - (1) Publicly available information. See section 4-4.
 - (2) Information disclosed to Postal Service employees or contractors in the performance of their Postal Service duties.
 - (3) Information disclosed to the individual to whom the information pertains, except that disclosures of OPF information to the employee must be accounted for.
- b. Request for Accounting of Disclosures. Individuals may request that the Postal Service provide its accounting of disclosures of records relating to themselves. The request must be made to the facility where the record is kept, and must clearly identify the requester and the system of records. Requests for accountings of disclosures pursuant to a computer match must be addressed to the manager, records office, at the address in section 1-5.2.4.
- c. Response. The custodian must notify the requester within 30 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) of receipt of the request whether a record of disclosures exists. If such a record exists, the custodian must give the requester the disclosure information unless an exception under section 3-4.1b.(6) applies.
- d. Disclosure Formats. There are three types of disclosure formats:
 - (1) Official Personnel Folders. To disclose information in OPFs, follow these instructions: use Form 6100-B, OPF Disclosure Accounting Form, to account for disclosures to law enforcement officials. Use Form 6100A, OPF Disclosure Accounting Form, to account for all other disclosures.

- (2) Union Representatives. Except for disclosures of OPF information, use Form 6105, Disclosure of Information About Employees to Collective Bargaining Agents, to account for disclosures to collective bargaining agents.
- (3) Other. The format may be a memorandum to the file (see suggested format in exhibit 3-4.4), a copy of correspondence transmitting the disclosed information, a log, or other listing, and must show:
 - (a) The date, nature (such as employee accident records folder review), and purpose (such as legal proceeding) of the disclosure.
 - (b) The name and address of the agency or person to whom the disclosure was made.

Exhibit 3-4.4

Suggested Format for Memo on Disclosure

Record of Disclosure from System of Records in Compliance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(c) Pertaining to: _____ [name of individual]____ Date: _____ Information disclosed: _____ [state, summarize, or otherwise identify]_____ Source: _____ [no. and name of system of records, identification of document(s), etc.]_____ To: _____ [individual, organization (if any), and address]_____ Purpose: Authority for disclosure: _____ [section of Act; no. of routine use; identification of written request or consent]_____

- e. Filing and Retention. The disclosure form must be filed, cross-indexed, or otherwise associated with the disclosed record, so that a complete accounting of disclosures can be constructed. The accounting must be kept for 5 years or the life of the disclosed record, whichever is longer.

3-4.5 Fees

Customers, employees, or other individuals may access, review, or amend their information free of charge. No fee is charged for the first copy of the requested record, up to the first 100 hundred pages. Additional or duplicate copies are charged at $.15 per page. Deposit fees in Account Identifier Code (AIC) 127.

3-5 Disclosing Customer, Employee, or Other Individuals' Information to Third Parties

3-5.1 General

Information about a customer, employee, or other individual contained in a system of records cannot be released to another person, including a spouse, except as allowed under sections 3-5.2 and 3-5.3. An accounting must be kept of each disclosure per section 3-4.4.

3-5.2 Internal Disclosures

Information may be disclosed to any Postal Service employee, or employee of a supplier managing a Postal Service system of records, who needs the information in the performance of Postal Service duties.

3-5.3 External Disclosures

Information can only be disclosed externally under one of the following four conditions.

- a. Consent. The customer, employee, or individual has authorized the disclosure in writing. The requester must have a signed statement of consent from the customer, employee, or individual, dated no earlier than 1 year before the date the Postal Service receives the request. Customers, employees, or other individuals may invite third parties to be present when reviewing records, if they submit a written statement authorizing disclosure in their presence.
- b. Statute. The disclosure fits within one of 12 categories listed in the Privacy Act. See the appendix.
- c. Routine Use. The agency has established a routine use authorizing the disclosure. Routine uses for systems of records are contained in the appendix. To determine the complete list of routine uses that apply to a particular system of records, check the general list of routine uses that apply to the system, as well as the particular system itself to see if it contains any special routine uses.
- d. Information that is Publicly Available. Certain information relating to employees, business change of address, permit holders, and other information is deemed publicly available and may be released. See section 4-4.

3-5.4 Coordination with Other Postal Service Offices

The custodian must coordinate with other Postal Service offices as follows.

- a. Congressional Requests. All inquires from Congress which request records or information other than public information must be forwarded to:

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT GOVERNMENT RELATIONS
475 L'ENFANT PLZ SW RM 10804
WASHINGTON DC 20260-3100

- b. Legal Proceedings. Before information is released pursuant to a subpoena or court order, appropriate counsel must be notified. Counsel advises on compliance with the request, and procedures for giving appropriate notice to the customer, employee, or other individual to whom the record pertains.

3-5.5 Validating Records and Noting Disputes

Before disclosing a record to a third party, the custodian must make reasonable efforts to ensure that it is accurate and complete enough to ensure fairness if a decision were made on the basis of the record. For example, it may be appropriate to advise recipients that the information was accurate as of a certain date. The custodian must clearly note any part of the record that is disputed and provide copies of any statement disputing the record.

3-6 Operating a Customer Web Site

These procedures apply to web sites used by customers, even if the web site does not collect customer information. When operating a customer web site, the procedures for notice, choice, access, security, and redress in sections 3-2 through 3-5 must be followed. The web site must also comply with the customer privacy policy on www.usps.com regarding its use of web analyses tools, such as cookies or web beacons. If the web site provides links to external web sites, the Web Site Affiliation Program Management Instruction AS-610-2001-6 must be followed.

3-7 Sending Marketing E-mail

The Postal Service's marketing e-mail policy applies when the Postal Service, or its supplier, sends an e-mail message to a customer or prospective customer that markets a different product or service than the customer may already receive from the Postal Service. Managers or employees intending to send a marketing e-mail must follow the procedures for notice and choice in the tables in sections 3-2.2 and 3-2.3. Complete procedures are available in MI AS 350-2003-6, Marketing E-mail.

3-8 Entering into a Contract or Business Agreement

Suppliers and business partners with access to information relating to customers, employees, or individuals, or that help to build or operate a web site or conduct a marketing e-mail campaign, must adhere to Postal Service privacy policies. Contracts and agreements, whether or not covered by the Purchasing Manual (PM), must include privacy clauses(s). For procedures to ensure the appropriate clause is included, consult the Purchasing Manual section 1.6 and clause 1-1, Privacy Protection, or contact the Privacy Office, Supply Management, or appropriate counsel.

3-9 Computer Matching Programs

A computer matching program is any computerized comparison of a Postal Service automated system of records with an automated system of another agency or internally. When using computer matching programs, the Postal Service must comply with Privacy Act requirements and OMB guidelines. The Postal Service Data Integrity Board is responsible for the review and approval of all Postal Service computer matching activities. The Records Office manages the process. All proposals, whether from Postal Service organizations or other government agencies, must be submitted to the Records Office at the address in section 1-5.2.4. Submit proposals at least 3 months in advance of the anticipated starting date to allow time for review and publication requirements. See MI AS 350-2003-5, Computer Matching Programs.

4 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Procedures

4-1 General

The FOIA provides the public with access to records maintained by the Postal Service, unless the records are exempt from disclosure. It is also Postal Service policy to make its records available to the public to the maximum extent consistent with the public interest. This chapter includes procedures that implement FOIA and Postal Service policy.

4-2 How to Make a FOIA Request

4-2.1 Format and Content

A FOIA request must be in writing, be a request for records, and bear the caption "Freedom of Information Act Request." Other requests for information are considered informal requests. Custodians should approve or deny informal requests for records under the substantive guidance in section 4-3, but not necessarily within the time limits required by the FOIA.

A requester should include the following information in a FOIA request:

- The requester's name, address, and daytime telephone number.
- A reasonable description of the records sufficient to permit the custodian to locate them with a reasonable amount of effort, and a description of any desired formats to receive the records.
- If seeking information about a company, the exact name and address of the company (many companies use similar names).
- The maximum amount of fees the requester is willing to pay without prior notice. If no amount is stated, the requester is deemed willing to pay fees up to $25.
- The requester is not required to provide reasons for the request. However, because some or all of the requested records may be exempt from disclosure, the requester may state any reason(s) why he or she believes the record should be disclosed.

If necessary, the custodian may ask the requester for more information.

4-2.2 Requests for Expedited Processing

The requester may ask for expedited processing if able to demonstrate a compelling need. See section 4-3.7b.

4-2.3 Requests for Fee Waivers

The requester may ask that fees or the advance payment of fees be waived in whole or in part. See sections 4-7.3 and 4-7.5.

The waiver request must describe all of the following:

- How the information will be used.
- To whom it will be provided, including the public.
- How the public is to benefit from the disclosure.
- Any personal or commercial benefit that the requester expects from disclosure.
- The intended user's identity, qualifications, and expertise in the subject area.

4-2.4 Where to Direct FOIA Requests

Requesters should direct FOIA requests as follows:

- a. General. The requester should direct FOIA requests to the appropriate records custodian. If a requester seeks records maintained at two or more locations, the custodian is deemed to be the next senior common manager of all locations. If the custodian is not known, the requester should contact the manager, records office, at the address in section 1-5.2.4.
- b. Employee Listings. On written request, the Postal Service provides, to the extent required by law, a listing of employees working at a particular postal facility (but not their home addresses or Social Security numbers). FOIA requests for employee listings must be sent to the manager, records office, who is the custodian of all such records, except for lists relating to Inspection Service employees (see below).
- c. Inspection Service Records. FOIA requests for Inspection Service records must be sent to the chief postal inspector at the address in section 1-5.2.9.

4-3 How to Process a FOIA Request

Records custodians must process FOIA requests as follows:

4-3.1 General

The custodian is responsible for locating requested records, and determining whether to disclose them or to deny the request. Fees should be assessed per section 4-7. The custodian must keep a record of all documents provided or denied for a period of 6 years from the date of the final response. The custodian should consult as needed with the FOIA coordinator, the manager, records office, or appropriate counsel before releasing or withholding records.

4-3.2 Searches

The custodian must make reasonable efforts to locate the requested records. This includes searches for records in electronic format, except when such effort would significantly interfere with the operation of the information system.

4-3.3 Requests That Are Insufficient, Misdirected, or for Records That Do Not Exist

If a custodian cannot locate a record based on the information furnished, the custodian must allow the requester to submit more information to describe the record. If feasible, the custodian should confer with the requester to clarify the request. Employees must forward misdirected requests to the appropriate custodian and notify the requester that the request has been forwarded. If there are no responsive records, the custodian must notify the requester.

4-3.4 Releasing Records

The custodian must locate and provide non-exempt records within the required time limits in section 4-3.7. If records are provided by written response, the custodian must explain any fees charged and how they may be paid, and attach copies of the requested records, in the format requested if feasible. As an alternative, the custodian may notify the requester in writing where and when records are available for copying. The custodian or a designee must be present during copying and collect any required fees. The custodian must send a letter to the requester confirming that records were so provided.

4-3.5 Withholding Any Records

The custodian must determine whether some or all of the documents, or portions of the documents, are exempt from disclosure, and provide a response within the time limits required in section 4-3.7. The decision to withhold information must be in writing, signed by the custodian or designee, and:

- a. Explain any fees to be charged and how they may be paid;
- b. Identify and explain all FOIA exemption(s) relied upon;
- c. Advise of appeal rights. See section 4-3.6.

The denial letter must include all non-exempt material, including any reasonable part of an exempt record that can be segregated, and a description of withholdings as follows. If records are withheld in part, black out or redact the exempt material, and note the applicable exemption in the margin of the record. If entire records or pages are withheld, provide a reasonable estimate of the number of records or pages, unless such estimate would harm an interest protected by the exemption relied upon.

4-3.6 Appeal Rights

Letters denying FOIA requests must include language such as the following: “You have the right to appeal this denial by writing to the General Counsel, United States Postal Service, 475 L’Enfant Plaza SW, Washington DC 20260-1100, within 30 days of the date of this letter. The letter of appeal should include a statement about the action or failure to act being appealed, the reasons why it is believed to be erroneous, and the relief sought, along with copies of your original request, this letter, and any other related correspondence.”

4-3.7 Time Limits

The custodian must respond to the requester in writing within the following time frames.

- a. General. The FOIA requires that requests be responded to within 20 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays). The 20-day period starts when a request has been received by the appropriate records custodian, and the request describes or has been clarified to describe records in a manner allowing them to be identified and located with a reasonable amount of effort. By mutual agreement, the custodian and the requester may establish a different response period.
- b. Expedited Processing. Requests for expedited processing must be granted when a requester demonstrates a compelling need. Compelling need exists if:
 - (1) Failure of the requester to obtain the records on an expedited basis could reasonably be expected to pose an imminent threat to the life or physical safety of an individual; or
 - (2) In the case of a request made by a person primarily engaged in disseminating information, there is an urgency to inform the public concerning actual or alleged federal government activity.

Within 10 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) of receipt of the request for expedited processing, the custodian must notify the requester in writing whether the request is granted. If granted, the custodian must process the request for records as soon as practical. If denied, the custodian must include appeal rights in the letter under section 4-3.6.

- c. Unusual Circumstances. The custodian may extend the response period under unusual circumstances. Unusual circumstances include requests requiring: (1) review of voluminous records; (2) a search of facilities other than the one processing the request; or (3) consultation with another agency, or two or more components of the Postal Service, having a substantial interest in the records. Within the initial 20-day response period, the custodian must send a letter to the requester stating the reason for the delay. If the response can be made within 10 additional working days from the end of the response period, the letter should include the expected response date. Otherwise the letter should provide the requester an opportunity to limit the scope of the request and/or arrange an alternative time frame for response. If the requester and the custodian cannot agree on scope or time frames, then the custodian must process the FOIA request as soon as reasonably possible, and send a letter to the requester confirming the lack of agreement and providing an estimated response date. The custodian must send a copy of all correspondence to the manager, records office.

4-4 Records Available to the Public

The following information is considered public information, and is releasable to the public.

4-4.1 Reading Rooms

Information maintained in public and electronic reading rooms.

- a. Public Reading Room. The Postal Service maintains a public reading room in the Postal Service library. The following material is available:
 - (1) All final opinions and orders made in the adjudication of cases by the judicial officer and administrative law judges.
 - (2) All final determinations pursuant to the Postal Operations Manual (POM) to close or consolidate a Post Office or to disapprove a proposed closing or consolidation.
 - (3) All advisory opinions about the private express statutes issued under 39 CFR 310.6.
 - (4) All bid protest decisions.
 - (5) Postal Service manuals and publications that affect members of the public.
- b. Electronic Reading Room. The FOIA electronic reading room indexes information routinely available to the public, including material contained in the public reading room, as well as records previously released under FOIA that have been the subject of multiple requests. The electronic reading room may be accessed at www.usps.com/foia.

4-4.2 Employment Data

The name, job title, grade, salary, duty status, and dates of employment of any current or former Postal Service employee.

- a. Credit References. Credit bureaus, banks, federal credit unions, and other commercial firms from which an employee is seeking credit may be given public information about the employee. If a firm requests more information, it must submit a release form signed by the individual.

- b. Job References. Prospective employers may be given public information about a current or former employee. This includes the date and reason for an employee's separation from the Postal Service, but the reason for separation must be limited to one of the following terms: retired, resigned, or separated. Other terms or variations of these terms (e.g., retired — disability) may not be used. If additional information is desired, the requester must submit the written consent of the employee.

4-4.3 Business Change of Address

The new address of any business that has filed a change of address notice.

4-4.4 Permit Holder Data

The name and address of the holder of a particular bulk mail permit, permit imprint, or similar permit, and the name of any individual applying for a permit on behalf of a holder. Lists of permit holders may not be disclosed.

4-4.5 Postage Meter License Holder Data

The name and address of the holder of a postage meter license, provided the holder is using the license for a business. Lists of license holders may not be disclosed. All requests must be sent to the manager of Postage Technology Management at Postal Service Headquarters at:

METER LICENSEE INFORMATION REQUEST
 POSTAGE TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT
 1735 NORTH LYNN ST RM 5011
 ARLINGTON VA 22209-6370

The request must include the original or copy of the envelope or wrapper on which the meter indicium is printed and a copy or description of the contents.

4-5 Records Which May Be Withheld From Disclosure

The FOIA provides nine exemptions under which records or portions of records may be withheld from public disclosure. A custodian may disclose exempt information as a matter of discretion if that disclosure is not prohibited by law and would not cause any foreseeable harm. The nine exemptions and records covered under each are listed in sections 4-5.1 through 4-5.9.

4-5.1 Exemption 1 — National Defense and Foreign Relations

Exemption 1 applies to classified national defense and foreign relations information.

4-5.2 Exemption 2 — Personnel Rules and Practices

Exemption 2 applies to records related solely to internal personnel rules and practices that are either (a) too trivial to be of genuine public interest, or (b) would enable circumvention of laws or regulations.

4-5.3 Exemption 3 — Federal Law

Exemption 3 applies to information that is exempt from disclosure under another federal statute. Examples include the Postal Reorganization Act, 39 U.S.C. 410(c) and 412.

39 U.S.C. 412 prohibits the disclosure of mailing lists or other lists of names or addresses (past or present) of Postal Service customers or other persons to the public by any means or for any purpose.

39 U.S.C. 410(c) permits the withholding of:

- a. The name or address, past or present, of any Postal Service customer.
- b. Information of a commercial nature, including trade secrets, whether or not obtained from a person outside the Postal Service, which under good business practice would not be publicly disclosed. Some examples are:
 - (1) Information about methods of handling valuable registered mail.
 - (2) Money order records.
 - (3) Technical information on postage meters and prototypes submitted for approval before leasing to mailers.
 - (4) Market surveys.
 - (5) Records indicating rural carrier lines of travel. On request, information of a general nature (e.g., an outline of the geographic area served by a particular rural route, the route numbers and number of boxholders or families on each rural route and highway contract route, and the number of families or businesses served within the total delivery area) may be disclosed. Do not disclose detailed information or use Postal Service route maps for this purpose. A map provided by the requester may be marked with the general information. Disclosure is a matter of local discretion when it is determined that to do so would not interfere with Postal Service operations.
 - (6) Records that would be of potential benefit to firms in economic competition with the Postal Service.
 - (7) Information that could materially increase procurement costs.
 - (8) Information that might compromise testing or examination materials.
- c. Information prepared for use in the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements under 39 U.S.C. 12, and minutes of or notes kept during the negotiating sessions.
- d. Information prepared for proceedings under 39 U.S.C. 36, relating to rates, classification, and service changes.

- e. Reports and memoranda of consultants or independent contractors, except to the extent that they would be required to be disclosed if prepared within the Postal Service.
- f. Investigatory files, whether or not considered closed, compiled for law enforcement purposes, except to the extent available by law to a party other than the Postal Service.

4-5.4 Exemption 4 — Trade Secrets and Privileged Information

Exemption 4 applies to trade secrets and privileged or confidential commercial or financial information provided to the Postal Service by a party outside the Postal Service, such as a supplier or customer. See section 4-6.3.

4-5.5 Exemption 5 — Internal or Interagency Information

Exemption 5 applies to interagency or internal memoranda or letters that would not be available by law to a private party in litigation with the Postal Service. This incorporates civil discovery privileges, including deliberative process privilege, attorney-client privilege, and attorney work-product privilege. The deliberative process privilege permits withholding of pre-decisional, deliberative (non-factual) information such as drafts, internal proposals, estimates, statements of opinion, analysis, advice, and recommendations of agency employees to be used in the decision-making process of an agency.

4-5.6 Exemption 6 — Personal Information

Exemption 6 applies to personal information, including medical and personnel files, the disclosure of which would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

4-5.7 Exemption 7 — Law Enforcement Records

The following applies to law enforcement records.

- a. General. Exemption 7 applies to records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that providing these records:
 - (1) Could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings.
 - (2) Would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or impartial adjudication.
 - (3) Could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
 - (4) Could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source including a state, local, foreign agency or authority, or any private institution that furnished information on a confidential basis. This also applies to records or information furnished by a confidential source and compiled by (a) a criminal law enforcement authority (such as the Postal Inspection Service)

- in the course of a criminal investigation or (b) an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation.
- (5) Would disclose techniques, procedures, and guidelines used in law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, if the disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law.
 - (6) Could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
- b. Criminal Law Investigation. When a request is made that involves access to records covered by exemption 7 and the investigation or proceeding involves a possible violation of criminal law, the Postal Service may treat the records as not subject to FOIA requirements during such time that there is reason to believe that (1) the subject of the investigation or proceeding is not aware of it; and (2) disclosure of the existence of the records could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings.
- c. Informant Records. When informant records maintained by a criminal law enforcement agency under an informant's name or personal identifier are requested by a third party, the records may be treated as not subject to FOIA requirements unless the informant's status as an informant is officially confirmed.

4-5.8 Exemption 8 — Financial Institutions

Exemption 8 applies to information relating to the regulation or supervision of financial institutions.

4-5.9 Exemption 9 — Geological Information

Exemption 9 applies to geological information on wells.

4-6 Special Categories of Records

Custodians must follow these procedures when the following records are requested.

4-6.1 Information on Individuals Other Than the Requester

Such information may only be released as allowed under sections 3-5 and 4-5.6. There must be an accounting of any disclosure under section 3-4.4.

4-6.2 Customer Names and Addresses

The procedures related to the disclosure of customer names and addresses are as follows:

- a. Customer or Mailing Lists. Mailing lists or other lists of names or addresses (past or present) of Postal Service customers or other persons may not be made available to the public by any means or for any purpose.

- b. Mail and Mail Covers. Information from the contents or cover of any customer's mail must not be recorded, photocopied, filed, or otherwise collected or disclosed within or outside the Postal Service, except for Postal Service operations and law enforcement purposes as specified in sections 213 and 274 of the Administrative Support Manual.
- c. Address Location. If the location of an address is known, a Postal Service employee may disclose the location or give directions to the address.
- d. Release of Address Information:
 - (1) General. Information relating to boxholders, change of address, and commercial mail receiving agencies may only be disclosed as permitted by the Privacy Act and routine uses for the applicable system of records. See the appendix, additional instructions in section 4-6.2d.(2), and exhibit 4-6.2a., Address Disclosure Chart.
 - (2) Additional Instructions. The following additional instructions must be followed relating to requests for change of address or boxholder information.
 - (a) General. Disclosures must be limited to the address of the specific individual about whom information is requested, not other family members or individuals whose name may appear on the change of address form. The address of an individual may be withheld to protect the individual's personal safety. If an individual has filed for a protective order, the address may not be disclosed except pursuant to a court order and on the advice of counsel.
 - (b) To persons serving legal process. This includes persons empowered by law, the attorney for a party on whose behalf service is to be made, or a party who is acting pro se (the term pro se means that a party is self-represented, and is not represented by an attorney). Do not provide a copy of the Postal Service form. Suggest that the requester use the standard format in exhibit 4-6.2b. If the requester uses the standard format on its own letterhead, the standard format must be used in its entirety, and the warning statement and certification must appear immediately before the signature block. If the request lacks any of the required information or a proper signature, the custodian must return it to the requester specifying the deficiency. Each request must specify all of the following information:
 - (i) A certification that the name or address is needed and will be used solely for service of legal process in connection with actual or prospective litigation.

- (ii) A citation to the statute or regulation that empowers the requester to serve process, if the requester is anyone other than a party acting pro se or the attorney for a party for whom service will be made.
 - (iii) The names of all known parties to the litigation.
 - (iv) The court in which the case has been or will be commenced.
 - (v) The docket or other identifying number, if one has been issued.
 - (vi) The capacity in which the individual is to be served (e.g., defendant or witness).
- (c) To a federal, state, or local government agency. Address verification is provided to government agencies that provide written certification that the information is needed to perform their duties. Verification means advising the agency as to whether the address provided is one at which mail for that customer is currently being delivered. It does not mean or imply knowledge on the part of the Postal Service about the actual residence of the customer or the actual receipt of mail delivered to that address. Agencies must use the standard format in exhibit 4-6.2c when requesting address verification. If the request lacks any of the required information or a proper signature, the custodian must return the request to the agency specifying the deficiency in the space marked "other."
- (d) For jury service. The known mailing address of any customer sought for jury service is provided without charge to a court official, such as a judge, court clerk, or jury commissioner, upon prior written request.

4-6.3 Third Party Business Information

A custodian must not release nonpublic third party business information without following these procedures.

- a. General. Under FOIA Exemption 4, any person or entity who submits business information to the Postal Service ("submitter") is entitled to request that the information not be disclosed. The submitter may request that information be withheld: (1) when submitting the information, by designating all or part of the information as not releasable (e.g., by marking designated information as privileged or not releasable); or (2) in response to notice of a FOIA request. If information is supplied on a recurring basis, a simplified means of identifying non-releasable information may be agreed upon by the submitter and the custodian. Protective designations expire 10 years after the records were submitted unless the submitter provides a reasonable justification for a longer period. No action is needed by the custodian unless a request for the submitter's information is received.

b. Notification:

(1) General. Unless an exception applies, the custodian must notify a submitter within 5 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) after a FOIA request is received for the submitter's business information if:

- The submitter has designated the information as protected from disclosure; or
- In the opinion of the custodian, or the general counsel in the case of an appeal, disclosure of the information could result in competitive harm to the submitter.

The notification must either describe the exact nature of the business information requested, or provide copies of the records or portions of records containing the business information. The custodian must notify the requester that notice and an opportunity to object are being provided to the submitter.

(2) Exceptions. Notification does not need to be made if:

- The custodian determines that the information will not be disclosed.
- The information lawfully has been published or has been officially made available to the public.
- Disclosure of the information is required by law (other than FOIA).
- Disclosure of the particular kind of information is required by a Postal Service regulation. In such cases, the custodian must provide advance written notification to the submitter if the submitter had designated the information as protected.

c. Submitter Objections to Disclosure. The custodian must give the submitter a reasonable time to provide a detailed written statement of any objection to disclosure. The objection must specify the grounds for withholding any of the information under any FOIA exemption. Specifically, under FOIA Exemption 4, the submitter must demonstrate why the information is a trade secret or commercial or financial information that is privileged or confidential. When possible, the objection should be supported by a statement or certification by an officer or authorized representative of the submitter that the information in question is confidential, has not been disclosed to the public by the submitter, and is not routinely available to the public from other sources. The objection and any accompanying information may also be subject to disclosure under FOIA.

d. Disclosure. If planning to disclose records over the submitter's objection, the custodian must furnish the submitter a written notice that includes:

- (1) A description of the business information to be disclosed.
- (2) A statement of the reasons why the submitter's objections were not sustained.

- (3) The specific date on which disclosure is to occur. The notice of intent to disclose must be provided to the submitter in a reasonable number of days before the specified disclosure date, and the requester must be notified of the notice of intent.
- e. Nondisclosure. If the custodian determines that any part of the requested records should not be disclosed, the custodian must notify the requester in writing, and include the right to appeal the decision. See section 4-3.6. A copy of the letter of denial must also be provided to the submitter in any case in which the submitter had been notified of the request. If a requester brings a lawsuit seeking to compel disclosure of business information, the general counsel or designee must promptly notify the submitter.

4-6.4 Congressional Requests

If the request is on behalf of Congress through a committee or subcommittee, disclosure is the general rule. In most cases, only the Executive privilege could justify nondisclosure. Consult appropriate counsel. Process all other congressional requests as a request from any person under the procedures in this chapter. Forward all requests for nonpublic records to Government Relations at the address provided in section 3-5.4a.

4-6.5 Requests for Inspection Service Records

The chief postal inspector is responsible for processing FOIA requests for information compiled for law enforcement purposes. The chief postal inspector may be contacted at the address in section 1-5.2.9.

4-6.6 Records Subject to Litigation

For records sought pursuant to subpoena, court order, summons, or regarding matters that are in litigation or likely to become the subject of litigation, the custodian must immediately advise appropriate legal counsel. Records may only be released on advice of counsel. Postal Service regulations concerning providing records subject to legal proceedings are contained in 39 CFR 265.11-13.

4-7 Fees

4-7.1 General

The Postal Service may charge fees for costs incurred in accordance with this section. The requester is responsible for the payment of all fees related to processing the request, even if requested records are not located or are determined to be exempt from disclosure. Requesters must make checks or money orders payable to the "United States Postal Service."

4-7.2 Aggregate Requests

When a custodian reasonably believes that a requester is attempting to break a request down into a series of requests to avoid fees, the custodian may aggregate the requests and charge accordingly. Multiple requests pertaining to unrelated subject matters are not aggregated. Requests made by more than one requester may be aggregated when a custodian has a concrete basis to conclude that requesters are acting together to avoid fees.

4-7.3 Fees Not Assessed and Fee Waivers

- a. Fees not charged. The Postal Service provides the following services free of charge:
 - (1) The first 2 hours of search time and the first 100 pages, except commercial requesters must pay the fees listed in section 4-7.4b.
 - (2) In addition to section 4-7.3a.(1), records that total $10 or less, as determined by section 4-7.4b.
 - (3) Address information released pursuant to this handbook.
- b. Fees waived for public interest. The custodian may waive a fee in whole or in part, or any requirement for advance payment, when the custodian determines that providing the records is in the public interest because it is likely to contribute significantly to public understanding of the operations or activities of the federal government, and is not primarily in the commercial interest of the requester. In determining whether disclosure is in the public interest, all the following factors are considered:
 - (1) The relation of the records to the operations or activities of the Postal Service.
 - (2) The informative value of the information to be disclosed.
 - (3) Any contribution, and the significance of that contribution, to the public's understanding of the subject likely to result from disclosure.
 - (4) The nature of the requester's interest, if any, in the information, including personal or commercial interests.
- c. Fees waived by officer. Any Postal Service officer or designee, or the manager, records office, may waive in whole or in part any fee or the requirement for advance payment.

4-7.4 Requester Categories and Fees Assessed

Determine fees in accordance with this section. Round hourly rates to the nearest half hour.

- a. Requester Categories. To assess fees, the custodian must classify requesters into one of the following four categories:
 - (1) Commercial use requesters. Requesters who are furthering their commercial interests or the commercial interests of those they represent.

- (2) Educational or noncommercial scientific institutions. Institutions of higher learning, or institutions conducting scientific research not intended to promote a product or industry.
- (3) News media representative. A requester actively gathering news for an entity that disseminates news to the public (except that media requests for information to further their commercial interests are considered commercial use requests).
- (4) Other. All other requesters.

b. Fees Assessed:

Requester Category	Search Time	Review Time	Duplication
Commercial Use	$32 per hour	$32 per hour	$.15 per page
Educational/ Scientific	None	None	1-100 pages free, $.15 per page thereafter
News Media	None	None	1-100 pages free, $.15 per page thereafter
Other Requesters	2 hours free $32/hour thereafter	None	1-100 pages free, $.15 per page thereafter

c. Fees for Computer Searches. When information must be retrieved by computer, the following rates for computer time and personnel apply:

- Computer processing:

Mainframe usage	$.39 per second
Midrange server usage	$.06 per second
PC usage	$ 7 per 15 minutes
Printing computer output	$.14 per page
Magnetic tape production	$24 per volume
- Personnel:

High technical	$120 per hour
Medium technical	$70 per hour
Low technical	$50 per hour

d. Special Fees:

- (1) Domestic Special Services. A copy of one or more of the following is provided upon payment of the fee in DMM section R900: a paid money order; the return receipt requested for mail sent COD, certified, registered, insured; or the domestic delivery record for articles sent COD, certified, registered, or insured. A list of persons who do not want to receive sexually-oriented advertising is provided upon payment of the fee listed in DMM section C032.
- (2) Publications. Publications and other printed materials may be provided at any established price or cost to the Postal Service.

- (3) Other Fees. Other direct costs related to processing a FOIA request that are not accounted for under this section may be assessed upon reasonable documentation to the requester.

4-7.5 Advance Notice and Payment

- a. Advance Notice. The custodian must notify the requester as soon as reasonably possible if the estimated processing cost is expected to exceed $25, unless:
 - (1) The request specifies that whatever cost is involved is acceptable or is acceptable up to a specified amount that covers estimated costs; or
 - (2) Payment of all fees in excess of $25 has been waived.
- b. Advance Payment. Advance payment is required:
 - (1) When the estimated fees are likely to exceed $250 and the requester has no history of payment. The custodian may require an advance payment of an amount up to the full estimated charge before commencing work on the request.
 - (2) When a requester has previously failed to pay a fee within 30 days of billing. In such instances, the requester is required to pay the full amount owed and make an advance payment of the estimated fees.

When advance payment is required, the time for responding does not run between the date notice requiring advance payment is sent and the date payment is received.

4-7.6 Accounting for Fees

Custodians must account for fees as follows:

- a. For fees received at Post Office installations, deposit fees received as Postal Service funds. Record the amounts collected by entries to AIC 198, Freedom of Information Fees.
- b. For fees at non-Post Office installations, forward fees to the disbursing officer at the Eagan Accounting Service Center for deposit. Specify general ledger account 43388, Freedom of Information Fees, as the account for the amounts collected. Send fees to the following address:
DISBURSING OFFICER
EAGAN ACCOUNTING SERVICE CENTER
2825 LONE OAK PKWY
EAGAN MN 55121-9640

4-8 Appeals

4-8.1 General

Requesters may appeal decisions to the general counsel at the address in section 1-5.2.8. A requester may appeal any of the following:

- a. A request to inspect or copy a record is denied in whole or in part.
- b. A request for expedited processing is not approved.
- c. A request for waiver of fees is not approved.
- d. A request where the custodian make no determination within the required time.

4-8.2 Time Limit

The appeal must be sent within 30 days of the date of denial or other action, or within a reasonable time if the appeal is from a failure of the custodian to act. The general counsel may consider late appeals.

4-8.3 Required Appeal Elements

An appeal must include all the following information as applicable:

- a. A copy of the request, any letter of denial or other action, and any other related correspondence.
- b. A statement of the action, or failure to act, from which the appeal is taken.
- c. A statement of the reasons why the requester believes the action or failure to act is erroneous.
- d. A statement of the relief sought.

4-8.4 Final Decision

The decision of the general counsel is the final decision of the Postal Service. The general counsel promptly considers appeals for expedited processing of a request. All other decisions should be made within 20 days (excluding weekends and federal holidays) from receipt of the appeal by the general counsel. The 20-day response period may be extended when reasonably necessary to consider an appeal under one or more of the unusual circumstances described in section 4-3.7c. If not prohibited by law, the general counsel may direct disclosure of a record even though disclosure is not required. If the decision sustains a denial, the decision must justify why the request was denied and inform the requester of his or her right to judicial review.

4-9 Reporting

Custodians must account for FOIA requests and responses as follows.

4-9.1 General

These procedures apply to written requests that cite FOIA and/or the Privacy Act. At the time a response is made, custodians must also complete PS Form 8170, Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act Request Report, with the following exceptions:

- a. Requests for individual change of address information under section 4-6.2.
- b. Requests from federal, state, or local government agencies for any type of information.
- c. Requests from a union, unless the request includes the written consent of the records subject authorizing the Postal Service to release records to the union representative.
- d. Any preprinted form, either a Postal Service form or third party form (e.g., from mortgage companies), on which the only reference to the Privacy Act is a Privacy Act notice.

4-9.2 Submissions

Custodians must submit completed PS Forms 8170 as follows:

Records custodians	Where to send reports
Located in area offices	FOIA coordinator in the area office
Located in processing and distribution center offices	FOIA coordinator in the performance cluster
Located in customer service and sales district offices	FOIA coordinator in the performance cluster
Located in headquarters and headquarters field units	Manager, records office
Who are postmasters	FOIA coordinator in the performance cluster

4-9.3 FOIA Annual Report

The manager, records office, submits a report concerning the administration of the FOIA to the Attorney General of the United States on or before February 1 of each year. The report is available to the public at www.usps.com/foia.

Section C. Privacy Act Protections

Privacy Act

The Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, applies to Federal agencies, including the Postal Service. The Privacy Act provides protections for personal information that an agency maintains in a system of records. A system of records describes a file, database, or program from which information is retrieved about an individual by name or other personal identifier.

Privacy Act Protections

The Privacy Act establishes recordkeeping, access, and nondisclosure requirements for information maintained in a system of records. The Privacy Act requires agencies to publish a description of each system of records to provide full information on how personal information within the system is treated. This includes how information is collected, used, disclosed, stored, and disposed of. It also includes how individuals can obtain access to, correct, and amend information relating to themselves that is stored in the system. The Privacy Act places limitations and requirements on how information from within a system can be disclosed, as described below. Sections D and E contain the complete description of routine uses that apply to the Postal Service systems of records.

Authorized Disclosures and Routine Uses

Under the Privacy Act, information can only be disclosed from a system, internally or externally, under one of two conditions.

1. The individual has authorized the disclosure in writing.
2. The disclosure fits within one of 12 specified categories.

The following is a description of disclosures, including those authorized by the Privacy Act, Postal Service routine uses, and regulations.

Disclosures Authorized by the Privacy Act

The Privacy Act authorizes disclosures in the following 12 circumstances. To see the official text of the Privacy Act, see 5 U.S.C. §552a(b).

Under the Privacy Act, disclosures are authorized:

1. To agency employees who need the information to perform their job.
2. As required by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).
3. For routine uses for which the agency has provided proper notice.
4. To the Bureau of the Census, for purposes related to census and survey activities.
5. To a recipient who provides advance written assurance that the information will only be used for statistical research or reporting and the information provided does not identify individuals.
6. To the National Archives and Records Administration, for historic preservation purposes.
7. To other domestic government agencies for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity, if the activity is authorized by law. In such cases, the agency head must specify in writing both the law enforcement activity and the particular information needed.
8. To a person, upon a showing of compelling circumstances affecting an individual's health or safety. The agency must send notice of the disclosure to the individual's last known address.
9. To Congress or to any of its committees or subcommittees, to the extent the matter is within their jurisdiction.
10. To the Comptroller General, in the performance of duties of the General Accounting Office.
11. Pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

12. To a consumer reporting agency in order to collect claims owed to the Government.

Postal Service Disclosures and Routine Uses

The Privacy Act allows agencies to disclose information from a system of records if they establish a routine use describing the disclosure (see 3. above). Under the Privacy Act, routine uses are defined as disclosures that are compatible with the purpose for which the information was collected — in other words, disclosures that are appropriate and necessary for the efficient conduct of government business. Routine uses for each system of records are established by publishing them in a Federal Register notice that describes the system. They must also be disclosed in a notice given to an individual when information is collected directly from the individual. Routine uses that apply to general and customer systems of records are contained in Sections D and E, respectively.

The Privacy Act also allows disclosures required by the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Postal Service regulations implementing the Privacy Act and FOIA are contained in 39 CFR Parts 261–268. Postal Service regulations describe treatment for particular FOIA and other requests, and describe exemptions permitting nondisclosure for certain personal and business information as allowed by FOIA.

Section D. Prefatory Statement of Routine Uses That Apply to General Systems of Records

General Systems of Records

Section D includes routine uses for general systems of records. General systems include systems relating to employees, Finance, Postal Inspection Service, litigation, and other systems that are not primarily related to Postal Service customers.

Routine Uses for General Systems

The following are routine uses for general systems of records.

Note: The letter “j” was not used. Each system notice indicates which standard routine uses are incorporated, as well as any specific routine uses that apply.

- a. Disclosure for Law Enforcement Purposes. When the Postal Service becomes aware of an indication of a violation or potential violation of law, whether civil, criminal, or regulatory in nature, and whether arising by general statute or particular program statute, or by regulation, rule, or order issued pursuant thereto, or in response to the appropriate agency’s request on a reasonable belief that a violation has occurred, the relevant records may be referred to the appropriate agency, whether federal, state, local, or foreign, charged with enforcing or implementing the statute, rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant thereto.
- b. Disclosure Incident to Litigation. Records from this system may be disclosed to the U.S. Department of Justice or the other counsel representing the Postal Service, or may be disclosed in a proceeding before a court or adjudicative body before which the Postal Service is authorized to appear, when (1) the Postal Service; or (2) any Postal Service employee in his or her official capacity; or (3) any Postal Service employee in his or her individual capacity whom the Department of Justice has agreed to represent; or (4) the United States, when it is determined that the Postal Service is likely to be affected by the litigation, is a party to litigation, or has an interest in such litigation and such records are determined by the Postal Service or its counsel to be plausibly relevant to the litigation, provided, however, that in each case, the Postal Service determines that disclosure of the records is a use of the information that is compatible with the purpose for which it was collected. This routine use specifically contemplates that information may be released in response to relevant discovery and that any manner of response allowed by the rules of the forum may be employed.

- c. Disclosure Incident to Requesting Information. Records may be disclosed to a federal, state, or local agency maintaining civil, criminal, or other relevant enforcement or other pertinent information, such as licenses, when necessary to obtain information from such agency that is relevant to a Postal Service decision about the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, permit, or other benefit.
- d. Disclosure to Requesting Agency. Records may be disclosed to a federal, state, local, or foreign agency in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the conduct of a security or suitability investigation of an individual, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency’s decision on the matter.
- e. Congressional Inquiries. Disclosure may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the prompting of that individual.
- f. Disclosure to Agents and Contractors. Records or information from this system may be disclosed to an expert, consultant, or other individual who is under contract to the Postal Service to fulfill an agency function, but only to the extent necessary to fulfill that function. This may include disclosure to any individual with whom the Postal Service contracts to reproduce, by typing, photocopy, or other means, any record for use by Postal Service officials in connection with their official duties or to any individual who performs clerical or stenographic functions relating to the official business of the Postal Service.
- g. Storage. Inactive records may be transferred to a Federal Records Center for storage prior to destruction.
- h. Disclosure to Office of Management and Budget. Records from this system may be disclosed to the Office of Management and Budget in connection with the review of private relief legislation, as set forth in OMB Circular No. A-19, at any stage of the legislative coordination and clearance process as set forth in that circular.
- i. Disclosure to Outside Auditors. Records in this system may be subject to review by an independent certified public accountant during an official audit of Postal Service finances.
- j. Disclosure to Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Records from this system may be disclosed to an authorized investigator, administrative judge, or complaints examiner appointed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, when requested in connection with the investigation of formal complaint of discrimination filed against the U.S. Postal Service under 29 CFR Part 1614.

- k. Disclosure to Merit Systems Protection Board or Office of the Special Counsel. Records from this system may be disclosed to the Merit Systems Protection Board or Office of the Special Counsel for the purpose of litigation, including administrative proceedings, appeals, special studies, investigations of alleged or possible prohibited personnel practices, and such other functions as may be authorized by law.
- l. Disclosure to Labor Organizations. Pursuant to the National Labor Relations Act, records from this system may be furnished to a labor organization when needed by that organization to perform properly its duties as the collective bargaining representative of Postal Service employees in an appropriate bargaining unit.

Section E. Prefatory Statement of Routine Uses That Apply to Customer Systems of Records

Customer Systems of Records

Routine Uses for Customer Systems

The following standard routine uses apply to Postal Service systems of records for customer information. The routine uses fall into three categories: 1) disclosures that are legally required (such as in a legal proceeding), 2) disclosures that facilitate the customer transaction (such as sharing data with contractors assisting in the program), and 3) disclosures for the benefit of the customer (such as sharing with a congressional office at a customer's behest). A system may have an additional routine use or uses on occasion. Those routine uses will be disclosed in each system notice.

1. Disclosure for Law Enforcement Purposes. Relevant records may be disclosed to appropriate law enforcement agencies to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding suspected illegal activities against the Postal Service. Records may be disclosed to other law enforcement agencies as required by law.
2. Disclosure Incident to Legal Proceedings. When the Postal Service has an interest in litigation or other legal proceedings before a state, federal, local, administrative, or foreign adjudicative body, relevant records may be disclosed before that adjudicative body and/or to the Department of Justice or other legal counsel representing the Postal Service or its employees, and in response to relevant discovery.
3. Disclosure to Government Agencies. Relevant records may be disclosed to a federal, state, local, or foreign government agency when necessary in connection with decisions by the requesting agency or by the Postal Service regarding personnel matters, issuance of security clearances, letting of contracts, or decisions to issue licenses, grants, or other benefits.
4. Congressional Inquiries. Relevant records about an individual may be disclosed to a congressional office in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the prompting of that individual.
5. Disclosure to Agents, Contractors, and Partners. Relevant records may be disclosed to entities under contract or agreement with the Postal Service when necessary to fulfill a Postal Service function or to provide Postal Service products and services to customers.

6. Disclosure to Agencies and Entities for Financial Transactions. Relevant records may be disclosed to credit bureaus, government agencies, and service providers that perform identity verification and credit risk assessment services; to financial institutions or payees to facilitate or resolve issues with payment services; or to collection agencies, for the purposes of debt collection.
7. Disclosure to Auditors. Relevant records may be disclosed to government agencies and other entities authorized to audit the Postal Service and Postal Service activities, including financial and other audits of the Postal Service.
8. Disclosure for Customer Service Purposes. Relevant records may be disclosed to entities if the disclosure is part of the service to the customer. This includes disclosures to addressees of mail to process inquiries and claims; entities to which the customer wants to provide identity verification; the State Department, for passport processing; international posts or agents, to process international services or inquiries; or disclosures to mailers of sexually oriented advertisements of a list of individuals who do not want to receive them.
9. Disclosure to Labor Organizations. Pursuant to the National Labor Relations Act, records may be furnished to a labor organization when needed by that organization to perform properly its duties as the collective bargaining representative of Postal Service employees in an appropriate bargaining unit.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Provide Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, address information as requested to assist them in their statutory requirement of census taking.
2. Rural route customer addresses may be disclosed to individuals or organizations authorized by a postal regulation to receive address correction information.
3. Name and address information may be disclosed to federal, state, and local government agencies as required by such agencies for the purpose of performing their official duties.
4. Name and address information may be disclosed to government planning authorities or firms under contract with those authorities for the purpose of assigning locatable (street name and number) addresses to rural addresses, but disclosure will be limited to that necessary for address conversion or assignment.
5. Disclosure of a customer's new locatable (street name and number) address may be made from the Locatable Address Conversion File to mailers wishing to have their mailing lists updated with the newly assigned address, but disclosure will be limited to the assigned addresses corresponding to those provided by the mailer.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Preprinted forms or lists in ordinary file equipment or on computer tape and printouts. Records of rural address conversion to locatable (street name and number) address are also consolidated in a Locatable Address Conversion Service file on magnetic tape maintained by firms under contract or license agreement with the Postal Service.

Retrievability

Records are maintained by name and address of customer, and by route number, employee name, or postal facility name.

Safeguards

Access to and use of these records are limited to those individuals whose official duties require such access. Contractor/licensee Privacy Act protections are subject to impromptu onsite audits and inspection by the Postal Inspection Service.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Records in card or list form are maintained as long as the customer resides on the route; they are destroyed by shredding 1 year after the customer moves.
- b. Route travel description records and establishment and discontinuance orders are retained until route is discontinued and then transferred to the Federal Records Center within 2 years after discontinuance date.
- c. Trip reports are retained for 3 years and then disposed of by shredding or burning.
- d. Route inspection reports and mail count records (mail counts made annually or more frequently) are retained for 2 years. Where mail counts are made less than annually, records are retained until the next mail counts. Disposal of records is by shredding or burning.
- e. Other carrier records in system are retained for a period of up to 1 year, depending on the criticality of the information, and then destroyed by shredding or burning.

Equal Employment Opportunity — EEO Discrimination Complaint Files, 030.010

System Location

EEO Compliance & Appeals, Labor Relations, Headquarters; EEO Compliance and Appeals Processing Centers, area offices; districts; and contractor sites.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Current and former postal employees, applicants for positions within the Postal Service, third-party complainants, and mediators (postal employees, other federal agency employees and contract employees).

Categories of Records in the System

Records may contain names, work locations, dates, Social Security numbers, the number of complaints and the resolution of complaints mediated, and other information as contained on affidavits, interview reports, investigative forms, counselor reports, exhibits, withdrawal notices, settlement agreements, briefs, appeals, copies of decisions, records of hearings and meetings, and other records related to complaints.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

Public Law 92-261, Equal Employment Act of 1972; 29 U.S.C. 621 et seq., Age Discrimination in Employment Act; 29 U.S.C. 701 et seq., Rehabilitation Act of 1973; and Executive Order 11478, amended by Executive Order 11590.

Purpose(s)

Used by EEO officers and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to adjudicate complaints of alleged discrimination and to evaluate the effectiveness of the EEO program. Also used by Human Resources personnel to administer voluntary alternative dispute resolution programs.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Information contained in this system of records may be disclosed to an authorized investigator appointed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, upon his/her request, when that investigator is properly engaged in the investigation of a formal complaint of discrimination filed against the U.S. Postal Service under 29 CFR part 1614 and the contents of the requested records are needed by the investigator in the performance of his/her duty to investigate a discrimination issue involved in the complaint.
2. Information may be disclosed to a mediator retained by the Postal Service when needed to resolve an EEO complaint at the precomplaint stage.

Storage

Paper case files. Status information required by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is maintained on ADP records. Records of alternative dispute resolution are maintained in an electronic database.

Retrievability

Case number. The custodian must also be furnished with the name of the complainant and the place where the complaint was filed. Case number consists of a number designating the area (or Headquarters), a letter designating the district, four digits for the chronological case number, and the last two digits of the applicable year.

Safeguards

Case files are maintained in secure file cabinets within locked rooms. ADP records are protected with password security.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Precomplaint records — Counselor/investigator notes are destroyed 1 year after a formal report is submitted to the EEO officer or 1 year following the final adjustment when made at that level.
- b. Formal complaint records — All closed cases are removed from the system quarterly. Each closed case is retained as follows: Official file, for 4 years; any copies, for 1 year; and background documents not in case file, for 2 years.
- c. ADP records — Closed case information is removed at the conclusion of the fiscal year and moved to an inactive file for future comparative analyses.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

- 1. Information contained in litigation records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in the context of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- 2. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Notification Procedure

Individuals wanting to determine whether this system of records has information about them must write to the system manager and provide their name, case number, if known, and the approximate date the action was instituted.

Record Access Procedures

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6.

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Note: Review of requests seeking amendment of records that have been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial administrative action will be limited. The amendment provisions of the Act are not intended to permit the alteration of evidence presented during an adjudication, nor are they intended to provide a means for collaterally attacking the finality of a judicial or administrative decision. Review of requests for amendment of adjudicative records will be restricted to determining whether the records accurately reflect the action of the judicial or administrative body ruling on the case and will not contain a review of the merits of the action.

Record Source Categories

- a. Individuals involved in EEO litigation.
- b. Counselor(s) and other representative(s) for parties in action other than the Postal Service.
- c. Other individuals involved in the development of EEO litigation. Source documents contain administrative complaint/action file, and other records relevant to the case.

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

Records or information in this system that have been compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding are exempt from individual access pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(d)(5). In addition, the Postal Service has claimed exemptions from certain provisions of the Act for several of its other systems of records, as permitted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). (See 39 CFR 266.9.) To the extent that copies of exempt records from those other systems are incorporated into this system, the exemptions applicable to the original primary system must continue to apply to the incorporated records.

Categories of Records in the System

Debtor's name, address, telephone number, and Social Security number; invoice and other information relating to the amount, history, and status of the claim; information relating to due process notice; and records reflecting information obtained from or disclosed to consumer reporting or credit reporting agencies for purposes of recovering the debt.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401; 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(12); Debt Collection Act of 1982 (Pub. L. 97-365).

Purpose(s)

Records are used to facilitate debt collection, to monitor and record collections made by the Postal Service, and as a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Records in this system are subject to review by an independent certified public accountant during an official audit of Postal Service finances.
2. Disclosure may be made to a debt collection agency for collection of a debtor's account, as provided for by contract with the debt collection agency.
3. Disclosure of information about individuals indebted to the Postal Service may be made to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or OPM acts as the matching agency but limited to those data elements considered relevant to determining whether the indebted individual has retirement funds available for set-off, collecting debts when funds are available for set-off, and writing off debts determined to be uncollectible.
4. Disclosure of information about individuals indebted to the Postal Service may be made to the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) of the Department of Defense for conducting an authorized computer matching program in compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, for the purpose of identifying and locating such individuals in order to initiate collection of the debts under the Debt Collection Act of 1982 (Pub. L. 97-365) through salary and/or administrative offset procedures.
5. Disclosure of information about individuals indebted to the Postal Service may be made to any federal agency where the debtor is employed or receiving some form of remuneration for enabling that agency to collect the debt on behalf of the Postal Service by counseling to debtor for voluntary repayment, or by initiating administrative or salary offset procedures under the Debt Collection Act of 1982.
6. Disclosure of information about individuals indebted to the Postal Service may be made to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) through computer matching to obtain the mailing address of a taxpayer for locating such taxpayer to collect a debt owed to the Postal Service pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 6103(m)(2) and in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3711, 3717, and 3718.

Note: Section F contains the complete text of Postal Service Privacy Act Systems of Records. Disclosure of a mailing address obtained from the IRS may be only for debt collection, including to a debt collection agency in order to facilitate the collection of a federal claim under the Debt Collection Act of 1982. A mailing address may be provided to a consumer reporting agency for the limited purpose of obtaining a commercial credit report on the individual taxpayer. Any such address information obtained from the IRS will not be used or shared for any other purpose by the Postal Service.

1. Disclosure of information about individuals indebted to the Postal Service may be made to the IRS for effecting income tax refund offset procedures against the debtor, pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 3720A.
2. Disclosure of information about postal customers who write nonsufficient funds checks for postal services may be made to the permit holder or presenter of a mailing being made on the customer's behalf. Disclosure is limited to the identity of the customer, the date of the mailing, and the date and amount of the check.
3. Disclosure of information about individuals who are over 180 days delinquent in debts owed to the Postal Service may be made to the Department of the Treasury for cross-matching under its Treasury Offset Program. Disclosure will be limited to information needed to establish the identity of the individual as a payee of funds payable by another federal agency and to offset those funds by administrative offset.
4. Disclosure of information that a person is responsible for a claim which is current may be made to a consumer reporting agency or commercial reporting agency.
5. Disclosure of information about individuals from whom the Postal Service is attempting to collect or compromise a claim may be made to consumer reporting agencies for the purpose of obtaining a consumer report, as defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

Disclosure to Consumer Reporting Agencies

Disclosures under 5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(12) may be made from this system to consumer reporting agencies as defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681(a)(f)) and the Federal Claims Collection Act of 1966 (31 U.S.C. 3701(a)(3)).

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Printed forms, punched cards, and magnetic tape.

Retrievability

Records are normally retrieved by Social Security number. When necessary, they may be retrieved by invoice number or name of employee, contractor, vendor, or other indebted individual.

Safeguards

Access is restricted to personnel of the General Accounting Section within the Postal Service and to contract employees responsible for assigned accounts. Computerized records are subject to the security of the computer room. Contract provisions make the contractor(s) responsible for complying with the provisions of the Privacy Act (subsection (m)(1)), except in the case of subsection (b)(12) disclosures to consumer reporting agencies (subsection (m)(2)).

Retention and Disposal

All information is retained for 4 years after claim is paid and then destroyed by burning or scratching.

5. Salary payments and allotments to financial organizations — To provide relevant information to organizations receiving salary payments or allotments, as elected by the employee.
6. FICA Deductions — The Social Security Act requires that FICA deductions be made for those employees not eligible to participate in the Civil Service Retirement System or Federal Employees' Retirement System (casuals, temps and transitional employees). In addition, the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 requires that contributions to the Medicare program be deducted from all employees' earnings. (These statutes do not apply to employees in the Trust Territories who are not U.S. citizens.) Accordingly, records of earnings (e.g., W-2 information) must be disclosed to the Social Security Administration in order that it may account for funds received and determine individual's eligibility for benefits. Information disclosed includes name, address, SSN, wages paid subject to withholding, Federal, state, and local income tax withheld, total FICA wages paid and FICA tax withheld, occupational tax, life insurance premium, and other information, as reported on an individual's W-2 form.
7. To determine eligibility for coverage and payment of benefits under the Civil Service Retirement System, the Federal Employees' Retirement System, the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program, and the Federal Employees' Health Benefits Program and transfer related records as appropriate.
8. To determine the amount of benefit due under the Civil Service Retirement System, the Federal Employees' Retirement System, the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program, and the Federal Employees' Health Benefits Program and to authorize payment of that amount and to transfer related records as appropriate.
9. Records or information from the record of an individual may be disclosed to the following agencies for the named programs, when requested by that individual agency or program in connection with determining an individual's claim for benefits under such program: The U.S. Department of Labor, for the Office of Workers' Compensation Program and the Fair Labor Standards Act; the Social Security Administration, for Social Security Benefits programs (including retirement, survivors, and disability insurance); the Department of Veterans Affairs, for the Pension Benefits Program; the Health Care Financing Administration, for the Medicare Program; a branch of the Armed Services under military retired pay programs; and federal civilian employee retirement systems, including, but not limited to, the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees Retirement System.
10. To transfer earnings information under the Civil Service Retirement System or the Federal Employees' Retirement System to the Internal Revenue Service as required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

11. To transfer information necessary to support a claim for life insurance benefits under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance, 4 East 24th Street, New York, NY 10010-3602.
12. To transfer information necessary to support a claim for health insurance benefits under the Federal Employees' Health Benefits Program to a health insurance carrier or plan participating in the program.
13. As a data source for management information for production of summary descriptive statistics and analytical studies in support of the function for which the records are collected and maintained, or for related personnel management functions or manpower studies; may also be used to respond to general requests for statistical information (without personal identification of individuals) under the Freedom of Information Act or to locate specific individuals for personnel research or other personnel management functions.
14. Certain information pertaining to postal supervisors may be transferred to the National Association of Postal Supervisors. Certain information pertaining to postmasters may be transferred to the National Association of Postmasters of the USA and/or the National League of Postmasters of the USA.
15. To provide to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) approximately 19 data elements (including SSAN, DOB, service computation date, retirement system, and FEGLI status) for use by OPM's Compensation Group. Data collected are not for the purpose of making determinations about specific individuals but are used only as a means of ensuring the integrity of the active employee/annuitant data systems and for analyzing and statistically projecting federal retirement and insurance system costs. The same data submission will be used to produce summary statistics for reports of federal employment.
16. Records in this system are subject to review by an independent certified public accountant during an official audit of Postal Service finances.
17. May be disclosed to a federal or state agency providing parent locator services or to other authorized individuals as defined by Pub. L. 93-647.
18. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to requesting states under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or the requesting state acts as the matching agency, but limited to only those data elements considered relevant to making a determination of employee participation in and eligibility under unemployment insurance programs administered by the states (and by those states to local governments), to improving program integrity, and to collecting debts and overpayments owed to those governments and their components.
19. To insurance carriers sponsored by unions and/or management associations for the purpose of determining eligibility for coverage and payment of benefits under those nonfederal insurance plans and transferring related records as appropriate.
20. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to requesting federal agencies or nonfederal entities under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or the requesting entity acts as the matching agency, but limited to only those data elements considered relevant to making a determination of employee participation in and eligibility under particular benefit programs administered by those agencies or entities or by the Postal Service; to improving program integrity; and to collecting debts and overpayments owed under those programs.
21. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made, upon request, to the Department of Defense (DoD) under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or DoD acts as the matching agency, but limited to those elements necessary to identify postal employees who are ready reservists for the purposes of updating DoD's listings of ready reservists and reporting reserve status information to the Postal Service and the Congress.
22. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to requesting federal agencies or nonfederal entities under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or the requesting entity acts as the matching agency, but limited to only those data elements considered relevant to identifying those employees who are absent parents owing child support obligations and to collecting debts owed as a result thereof.
23. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made on a semiannual basis to the Department of Defense (DoD) under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or DoD acts as the matching agency, but limited to only those data elements considered relevant to identifying retired military employees who are subject to restrictions under the Dual Compensation Act as amended (5 U.S.C. 5532) and for taking subsequent actions to reduce military retired pay or collect debts and overpayments, as appropriate.
24. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to requesting federal agencies under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or the requesting entity acts as the matching agency. Disclosure will be limited to only those data elements considered relevant to identify individuals who are indebted to those agencies and to provide those individuals with due process rights prior to initiating any salary offset, pursuant to the Debt Collection Act.
25. Disclosure of information about current and former employees may be made to the Selective Service System (SSS) under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or SSS acts as the matching agency. Disclosure will be limited to only those data elements considered relevant to identify individuals eligible for registration under the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 451 et seq.) to determine whether those individuals have complied with registration requirements and to enforce compliance when necessary.
26. Disclosure of information about current or recently terminated postal employees who live or work in Colorado may be made to the Colorado Bureau of Investigation under an approved computer matching program. Disclosure will be limited to only those data elements that the Postal Service considers necessary for identifying currently or recently terminated employees who have been arrested for violations of law that relate to postal offenses and/or suitability for continued employment or who are fugitives and for assisting state or local agents to apprehend fugitives.
27. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Internal Revenue

Appendix – Privacy Act Systems of Records

- Service under computer matching efforts, but limited only to those data elements considered relevant to identifying individuals who owe delinquent federal taxes or returns and to collecting the unpaid taxes by levy on the salary of those individuals pursuant to Internal Revenue Code.
28. Records or information about group health plan coverage for career and certain temporary employees who have been identified by the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) as being eligible for Medicare benefits will be disclosed to HCFA, but disclosure will be limited to that necessary to confirm coverage and determine whether Medicare is the primary or secondary payer.
 29. Disclosure of the information about current or recently terminated postal employees may be made to the Department of Transportation (DOT) under computer matching efforts, but limited only to those data elements considered relevant to identifying individuals who appear in DOT's National Driver Register Problem Driver Pointer System. The matching results are used only to determine as a general matter whether commercial license suspension information within the pointer system would be beneficial in making selections of Postal Service motor vehicle and tractor-trailer operator personnel and will not be used for actual selection decisions.
 30. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Internal Revenue Service under computer matching efforts, but limited only to those data elements relevant to making a determination as to the proper reporting of income tax purposes of an employee's wages, expenses, compensation, reimbursement, and taxes withheld and to taking corrective action as warranted.
 31. Disclosure of limited information about current or former postal employees, who are identified through computer matching, may be made to the Department of Health and Human Services, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 653, Parent Locator Service, for further release to state child support enforcement agencies when needed for locating noncustodial parents in order to establish and/or enforce child support obligations and for locating parents who may be involved in parental kidnapping or child custody cases.
 32. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Department of the Treasury for approved computer matching efforts under its Treasury Offset Program. Disclosure will be limited to information needed to establish the identity of the employee as an individual owing a delinquent debt to another federal agency and to offset the salary of the employee to repay that debt.
 33. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Office of Child Support Enforcement, Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services Federal Parent Locator System (FPLS) and Federal Tax Offset System for locating individuals and identifying their income sources to establish paternity, establish and modify orders of support, and for enforcement action.
 34. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Social Security Administration for verifying Social Security numbers in connection with the operation of the FPLS by the Office of Child Support Enforcement.

35. Disclosure of information about current or former postal employees may be made to the Department of the Treasury for purposes of administering the Earned Income Tax Credit Program (Section 32, Internal Revenue Code of 1986) and verifying a claim with respect to employment in a tax return.

Record Source Categories

Payroll system and Postmasters have input to this system of records.

USPS 050.060

System Name

Finance Records — Accounts Payable Files, USPS 050.060

System Locations

Post Offices, district and area finance offices, Postal Service Headquarters, imprest funds offices, personnel offices, accounting service centers, computer operations service centers, and contract travel and relocation agency offices.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Individuals or entities to whom the Postal Service makes payment(s) for materials and services received or expenses incurred in conjunction with official Postal Service business. Includes employees and officers authorized to travel, relocate, or otherwise incur expenses in performance of their official duties. Also includes persons that receive payment for indemnity claims for damage to or loss of mail, service failures, and administrative tort claims.

Categories of Records in the System

This system is made up of hard copy and electronic records. The records include hard copies of commitment documents, purchase orders, requisitions, invoices, claims, and receipts and computerized transaction files and databases. These records contain creditors' name, address, vendor, tax identification, or Social Security number (employees and officers are considered vendors), finance number, e-mail address, logon identification code, travel and relocation plans, travel expense and relocation transaction details, expense dates, descriptions of expenses incurred, amount due, payment status, and payment history. For employees and officers using the government-supplied travel card for travel and relocation expenses, certain electronic records also contain the employee or officer's credit card account number. For electronic funds transfer transactions (EFT), files also include the creditor's financial institution routing number, and for EFT payments made by the Postal Service on behalf of employees and officers, the employee or officer's account number.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401, 404, 1001, 1206, 2008, and Public Law 104-134.

Purpose(s)

The records in this system support payments to Postal Service creditors. Information from these records is used to:

1. verify that goods and services were received by the Postal Service;
2. assure that expenses incurred were properly authorized;
3. reimburse employees, officers, and vendors for travel, relocation, and other expenses incurred in conjunction with official Postal Service business;
4. generate electronic funds transfer and hard copy check payment transactions to promptly pay creditors; and
5. offset delinquent debts that certain creditors owe to the federal government under the Department of the Treasury Offset Program.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses follow:

1. Disclosure of information about individuals for whom the Postal Service maintains accounts payable records may be made to the Department of the Treasury for cross-matching under its Treasury Offset Program. Disclosure will be limited to information needed to establish the identity of the individual as a delinquent debtor of another federal agency and to offset the payment to pay the debt.
2. Disclosure of the name and address of the owner of leased property, or of the payee when different from the owner, may be made upon request.
3. Disclosure of the employee or officer's Social Security number and government-supplied credit card account number may be made to the government travel card vendor in conjunction with payment of charges for authorized expenses charged to the government-supplied travel card.

4. Disclosure of the employee or officer's account number may be made to the financial institution designated by the employee or officer when reimbursing the employee or officer for authorized travel relocation expenses not charged to government-supplied travel card.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Hard copy documents are retained in Post Offices, district and area finance offices, Postal Service Headquarters, imprest fund offices, personnel offices, the St. Louis and San Mateo Accounting Service Centers, and contractor travel and relocation agency offices. Electronic records related to accounts payable transactions, including incoming invoices, government-supplied travel card transactions, and electronic funds transfer and other payment records, are maintained at the San Mateo Computer Operations Service Center (COSC). The electronic databases containing employee travel reimbursement system enrollment, logon ID, and travel expense transaction records are retained at the Eagan COSC.

Retrievability

Hard-copy accounts payable records are retrieved by vendor name (including employees and officers) and identification number within processing location, transaction date, and/or batch number. Electronic records are retrieved by vendor name, identification number, credit card number, financial institution account number, transaction date, and/or batch number.

Safeguards

Hard copy and electronic records within this system are located in buildings with controlled access. Hard copy records are stored in lockable file cabinets. Access to the buildings and to controlled areas within the buildings is restricted through use of guards and authorized badges and/or card keys and limited to persons whose duties require such access. Electronic records are protected with security software and operating system controls, including the use of logon identification codes and password firewalls that prevent unauthorized access to the private Postal Service computer network, and encryption of sensitive data elements. Information that is transmitted electronically between Postal Service facilities or between the Postal Service and external entities is also encrypted. Access is limited by these means to persons whose duties require it.

Retention and Disposal

Note: In addition to this system of records, certain accounts payable records are duplicated in USPS Privacy Act Systems 010.030, 050.040, 150.030, 160.010, 160.020, 200.020, and 200.030, each of which has relevant retention periods established. See those systems for the retention of the records described therein.

- a. Hard copies of accounts payable records, including requisitions, purchase orders, certified invoices, travel expense reports, relocation forms, and related records, are filed alphabetically by vendor name and invoice number (in the Postal Service facility where the payment transaction was processed) within batch number, and/or within accounting period. These records are retained for 3 years from the end of the fiscal year in which the expenses were paid, then shredded.

- b. Hard copies of travel reimbursement system enrollment records are filed alphabetically, by employee or officer's last name, by responsible coordinator, within the Postal Service facility where the employee was enrolled into the system. These records are transferred to an inactive file when the employee or officer no longer participates in the electronic travel reimbursement system or separates from the Postal Service. The inactive records are retained until the end of the calendar year, then shredded.
- c. Electronic accounts payable payment records are retained online at the San Mateo COSC for 1 year from the end of the fiscal year in which the payment was made, archived for 6 additional years, then destroyed.
- d. Electronic travel reimbursement system employee and officer transaction records are retained online at the Eagan COSC for 3 years from the end of the fiscal year in which the reimbursement was claimed, archived for an additional year, then destroyed.
- e. Electronic travel reimbursement system employee and officer enrollment and logon ID records are retained online at the Eagan COSC until they are cancelled or superseded, when they are transferred to an inactive file. The inactive records are retained for 3 years from the end of the calendar year in which they became inactive, then destroyed.

administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in the context of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

4. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders. Abbreviated summary and identifying information pertaining to each case is maintained in case file docket binders and on magnetic tape or disk in automated office equipment. Copies of decisions are maintained for public inspection in the Postal Service Library. Official records of proceedings are maintained by the recorder of the Judicial Officer Department.

Retrievability

Alphabetically by name of respondent and numerically by sequential docket number.

Safeguards

Records are stored in secure file cabinets under the general scrutiny of Postal Service attorneys. Access to computer data is restricted to personnel having an official need for access.

Retention and Disposal

Case files are moved to an inactive file 3 years after completion of action and disposed of 20 years from date of completion. Case file dockets are destroyed 20 years after the destruction of the case files to which they pertain.

Notification Procedure

Individuals wanting to know whether information about them is maintained in this system of records must address inquiries to the above system manager. Inquiries must contain full name, name by which respondent in proceeding may have been designated, and approximate time in which proceedings may have been initiated.

Record Access Procedures

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6.

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Note: Review of requests seeking amendment of records that have been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial administrative action will be limited. The amendment provisions of the Act are not intended to permit the alteration of evidence presented during an adjudication, nor are they intended to provide a means for collaterally attacking the finality of a judicial or administrative decision. Review of requests for amendment of adjudicative records will be restricted to determining whether the records accurately reflect the action of the judicial or administrative body ruling on the case and will not include a review of the merits of the action.

Record Source Categories

Complaints, correspondence between parties involved, and Postal Inspection Service investigative reports.

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

Records or information in this system that have been compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding are exempt from individual access under 5 U.S.C. 552a(d)(5). In addition, the Postal Service has claimed exemptions from certain provisions of the Act for several of its other systems of records as permitted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). See 39 CFR 266.9. To the extent that copies of exempt records from those other systems are incorporated into this system, the exemptions applicable to the original primary system must continue to apply to the incorporated records.

System Name

Consumer Protection Records — Pandering Act Prohibitory Orders, 060.020

System Location

Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters and field offices; and Prohibitory Order Processing Center (POPC), Memphis, TN.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Addressees who request orders prohibiting further mailings to them by mailers of pandering advertisements and the mailers against whom such orders are issued.

Note: In most cases, the mailers of advertising material are business firms not covered by the Privacy Act.

Categories of Records in the System

Applications for prohibitory orders and the mail pieces upon which they are predicated, issued orders, signed return receipts from mailers receiving the orders, applications for the enforcement of the prohibitory orders, complaints issued to alleged violators and signed return receipts showing their delivery, notices to mailers that court action will be sought, pleadings, exhibits, briefs, investigative reports, hearing transcripts, material documents from POPC managers' case files; initial, tentative, and final administrative decisions and appeals from such decisions; requests to U.S. Attorneys for court actions enforcing violated orders, complaints and other documents filed in bringing such actions; and orders, opinions, and other documents issued by the courts.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 3006, 39 CFR Part 963.

Purpose(s)

To process applications for orders prohibiting mailers of pandering advertisements from making further mailings to the applicants, to determine whether violations of such orders have occurred, and to terminate the violations. Used by Prohibitory Order Processing Center personnel to effect such processing and determining; and by Postal Service attorneys in proceedings to terminate violations of the antipandering statute, including administrative proceedings before the Judicial Officer Department, requests to U.S. Attorneys for court action, and in court enforcement proceedings.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, and j listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. To help mailers avoid repeated violations, records may be used to provide them with a list of individuals who have obtained prohibitory orders against them and applied for enforcement upon violation of those orders.
2. Copies of initial, tentative and final decisions rendered in administrative proceedings before the Judicial Officer Department are maintained in the Postal Service Library for public inspection and copying.
3. Official records of administrative proceedings are maintained by the recorder of the Judicial Officer Department for public inspection.
4. Information in litigation records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in the context of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
5. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders and in a computer data base. Copies of decisions are maintained for public inspection in the Headquarters Library. Official records of proceedings are maintained by the recorder of the Judicial Officer Department.

Retrievability

By prohibitory order number or by name of individual requesting order.

Safeguards

Litigation files are stored in lockable file cabinets or rooms under the general scrutiny of Postal Service attorneys. Access to computer data is restricted to personnel having an official need for access.

Retention and Disposal

Case Files — Retained for 5 years following issuance of order or last application for enforcement.

Records or information in this system that have been compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding are exempt from individual access pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(d)(5). In addition, the Postal Service has claimed exemptions from certain provisions of the Act for several of its other systems of records as permitted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). See 39 CFR 266.9. To the extent that copies of exempt records from those other systems are incorporated into this system, the exemptions applicable to the original primary system must continue to apply to the incorporated records.

System Name

Consumer Protection Records — Appeals Involving Mail Withheld From Delivery, 060.030

System Location

Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters; Inspection Service.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Individuals who appeal because of the withholding of their mail and attorneys representing such individuals.

Note: Business firm customers are not covered by the Privacy Act.

Categories of Records in the System

Original correspondence regarding the withholding of mail from delivery; records that document the withholding; investigative reports; evidence of delivery or attempted delivery of notices; petitions; pleadings, notes, and legal memoranda; discovery documents; briefs; settlement agreements; decisions, appeals, and orders.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

Purpose(s)

To enable the general counsel to represent the Postal Service in administrative proceedings before the Judicial Officer Department in which customers petition for review of cases in which the Inspection Service has withheld mail from delivery pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 3003 to 3004.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Copies of initial, tentative, and final decisions are maintained in the Postal Service Library for public inspection and copying.
2. Official records of administrative proceedings are maintained by the recorder of the Judicial Officer Department for public inspection.
3. Information in litigation records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in the context of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
4. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Appeal case records are stored in paper folders, filed chronologically by date of closing. Abbreviated information, such as case name and other identifying data, is stored on index cards, filed alphabetically by case name, and on magnetic tape or disk in automated office equipment.

Retrievability

By Postal Service docket number and by name of individual whose mail has been withheld from delivery.

Safeguards

Records are maintained in secure filing cabinets under the scrutiny of Postal Service attorneys. Access to computer data is restricted to personnel having an official need for access.

Retention and Disposal

Appeal case records are destroyed 1 year after final disposition of case. Index cards are destroyed 6 months after final disposition of case.

USPS 080.010

System Name

Inspection Requirements — Investigative File System, 080.010

System Locations

Office of the (1) Chief Postal Inspector, Headquarters; (2) Field Operations Support Groups; and (3) Inspectors-in-Charge (30 divisions).

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

- a. Subjects of investigations, unsolicited information, surveillance; complainants, informants, witnesses; and other individuals related to investigations.
- b. Applicants and current and former Postal Service personnel and contractors and individuals providing information related to employment suitability checks on those individuals.
- c. Applicants for and appointees to sensitive positions in the Postal Service and individuals providing information related to security clearance checks on those individuals.

Categories of Records in the System

Information within this system relates to Inspection Service investigations carried out in accordance with applicable policies, regulations, procedures, and statutes. The investigations may relate to criminal, civil, or administrative matters, including personnel suitability and security clearance. Generally, investigative case files are physically located in the responsible Inspection Service Division, Field Operations Support Group, or Headquarters. These files may contain investigative reports, background data including arrest records, statements of informants and witnesses, laboratory reports of evidence analysis, search warrants, summons and subpoenas, and other information related to the investigation. Personal data in the system may include fingerprints, handwriting samples, reports of confidential informants, physical identifying data, voiceprints, polygraph tests, photographs, and individual personnel and payroll information. Inspection Service database systems contain additional or summary duplicative case files and other information in support of investigations. In addition, Inspection Service divisions maintain reference files and indexes, as needed, for quick access in day-to-day operations.

The specific authority for the Postal Inspection Service to investigate postal offenses and civil matters relating to the Postal Service is conferred at 39 U.S.C. 404(a)(7), 18 U.S.C. 3061, and 5 U.S.C. App 3. In the exercise of that authority, the Inspection Service conducts investigations pursuant to the following federal statutes and administrative rules, which are not intended to be all-inclusive. Although other federal agencies may have primary investigative jurisdiction over some of the statutes listed, the Inspection Service applies those statutes for cases involving postal personnel or property or as authorized by the Attorney General of the United States (18 U.S.C. 3061(b)(2)). These are the primary statutes that impact the Postal Inspection Service, but an investigation may involve statutes not listed.

1. False Representations; Lotteries. Where any individual is engaging in conducting a scheme or device for obtaining money or property through the mail by means of false representations or is conducting a lottery, the Postal Service may issue an order to return such mail to the sender (Title 39, United States Code, Section 3005).
2. Detention of Mail for Temporary Periods. Relates to violations of 39 U.S.C. 3005 and 3006. The U.S. District Court may issue a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction directing the detention of defendant's incoming mail (Title 39, United States Code, Section 3007).
3. Mailing of Sexually Oriented Advertisements (SOAs). Permits customers to file a statement with the Postal Service that they do not want to receive SOAs; a mailer who sends that person unsolicited SOAs can be subject to civil and criminal sanctions penalties under

- 39 U.S.C. 3011 and 18 U.S.C. 1735-37 (Title 39, United States Code, Section 3010).
4. Circulars and Rewards. Covers authorization and procedures (Title 39, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 233.2).

Purpose(s)

To provide information related to investigation of criminal, civil, or administrative matters, including employee and contractor background investigations.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. When conducting any official investigation or during a trial or hearing or the preparation of a trial or hearing, a record may be disseminated to an agency, organization, or individual when reasonably necessary to elicit information relating to the investigation, trial, or hearing or to obtain the cooperation of a witness or informant.
2. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to a federal, state, or local administrative or regulatory proceeding or hearing in accordance with the procedures governing such proceeding or hearing.
3. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated in an appropriate federal, state, local, or foreign court or grand jury proceeding in accordance with established constitutional, substantive, or procedural law or practice.
4. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to an actual or potential party or his or her attorney for the purpose of negotiation or discussion on such matters as settlement of the case or matter, plea bargaining, or informal discovery proceedings.

5. A record relating to a case or matter that has been referred by an agency for investigation, prosecution, or enforcement or that involves a case or matter within the jurisdiction of an agency may be disseminated to such agency to notify the agency of the status of the case or matter or of any decision or determination that has been made, or to make such other inquiries and reports as are necessary during the processing of the case or matter.
6. A record relating to a person held in custody pending or during arraignment, trial, sentence, or extradition proceedings or after conviction may be disseminated to a federal, state, local, or foreign prison, probation, parole, or pardon authority or to any other agency or individual involved with the maintenance, transportation, or release of such a person.
7. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to a foreign country under an international treaty or convention entered into and ratified by the United States or to an executive agreement.
8. A record may be disseminated to a federal, state, local, foreign, or international law enforcement agency to assist in the general crime prevention and detection efforts of the recipient agency or to provide investigative leads to such agency.
9. A record from this system may be disclosed to the public, news media, trade associations, or organized groups to provide information of interest to the public about the activities and the accomplishments of the Postal Service or its employees.
10. A record may be disseminated to a foreign country, through the United States Department of State or directly to the representative of such country, to the extent necessary to assist such country in apprehending or returning a fugitive to a jurisdiction that seeks that individual's return.
11. To provide members of the American Insurance Association Index System with certain information relating to accidents and injuries and/or other types of investigations.
12. A record from this system may be disclosed on an electronic bulletin board to organizations or individuals in the public or private sectors that share in the bulletin board, provided that the disclosure is approved by the Chief Postal Inspector, or delegate, because it is deemed necessary: (a) To elicit information or cooperation from these organizations or individuals for use by the Postal Inspection Service in the performance of an authorized activity; or (b) to alert those organizations or individuals of possible criminal activity that could affect them for which the Postal Inspection Service has authority to investigate and about which it has obtained credible information.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders. Abbreviated, summary, and identifying information pertaining to cases and criminal intelligence information are stored on computer storage media.

Retrievability

Name and fingerprint image of the individual.

Safeguards

Investigative records are maintained in locked file cabinets, safes, or secured areas under the scrutiny of Inspection Service personnel who have been subjected to security clearance procedures. Access is further restricted by computer passwords when stored in electronic format. Automated records can only be accessed through authorized terminals by authorized users. Computer software has been designed to protect data by controlling access, logging actions, and reporting exceptions and violations.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Records are maintained 1 to 15 years, depending on type. Exceptions may be granted for longer retention in specific instances. Paper records are destroyed by burning, pulping, or shredding. Computer tape/disk records are erased or destroyed.
- b. Duplicate copies of investigative memorandums maintained by postal officials other than the Inspection Service are retained in accordance with official rather than Inspection Service disposition schedules.

Individuals wanting to know whether information about them is in this system of records or if they were the subject of an investigation must furnish the system manager sufficient identifying information to distinguish them from other individuals of like name; identifying data will contain date of birth, name, address, type of investigation, dates, places, and the individual's involvement.

Record Access Procedures

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6.

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Record Source Categories

Personal interviews, written inquiries, and other records about individuals involved with an investigation, whether subjects, applicants, witnesses, references, or custodians of record information.

Systems Exempt From Certain Provisions of the Act

The Postal Service has established regulations at 39 CFR 266.9 that exempt information contained in this system of records from various provisions of the Privacy Act depending on the purpose for which the information was gathered and for which it will be used. Compliance with the disclosure

Appendix – Privacy Act Systems of Records

(552a U.S.C. (d)) and other subsections of the Act are not compatible with investigative practice and would substantially compromise the efficacy and integrity of Postal Inspection Service operations. The purposes for which records are kept within this system and the exemptions applicable to those records are as follows:

- a. Criminal law enforcement — Under 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), information compiled for this purpose is exempt from all the provisions of the Act except the following sections: (b), (c)(1) and (2), (e)(4)(A) through (F), (e)(6), (7), (9), (10), (11), and (i).
- b. Noncriminal investigatory — material compiled for law enforcement purposes (and not exempted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2)) is exempted from the following provisions of the Act: (c)(3), (d), (e)(4)(G), (H) and (I), and (f).
- c. Background investigations — material compiled solely for the purpose of a background security investigation is exempted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5) from the following provisions of the Act: (c)(3), (d), (e)(4)(G), (H) and (I), and (f).

System Name

Personnel Records — Confidential Financial Disclosure Reports, 120.060

System Location

Records pertaining to employees in each organizational component of the Postal Service are maintained in the field by managing field counsel and at Headquarters by the vice president having jurisdiction for that component.

Note: The records in this system are part of a government-wide system, OGE/GOVT-2, that is managed by the U.S. Office of Government Ethics. See 55 Fed. Reg. 6330 (1990).

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Postal Service Governors, employees, and special employees (except employees who are required to file public financial disclosure reports) as determined by the criteria in Executive Orders 12674 and 12731 and implemented by regulations of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics, 5 CFR 2634.904.

Categories of Records in the System

Standard Form 450, Executive Branch Personnel Confidential Financial Disclosure Report (superseding PS Forms 2417 and 2418) and supplemental statements, containing employee name, title, date of appointment to present position; list of assets and sources of income other than the United States Government, liabilities, outside positions, relations with other employers, and gifts and reimbursements. Opinions of counsel. Other information related to review of reports and conflict of interest determinations. Postal Service Governors complete Standard Form 278 in lieu of SF 450.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

Section 107 of the Ethics in Government Act, 5 U.S.C. App., as amended; Executive Orders 12674 and 12731; 5 CFR 2634.

Purpose(s)

These records are maintained to meet requirements of Executive Order 12674 on the filing of confidential financial disclosure reports. Such reports are required to assure compliance with the standards of conduct for government employees contained in the Executive Order and Title 18 of the U.S. Code and to determine if a conflict of interest exists between the employment of individuals by the Postal Service and their personal employment and financial interests. To enable the director of the Office of Government Ethics to ensure that these purposes are met, records maintained by the Postal Service are to be made available to that office on request. Records may also be furnished to the Executive Office of the President and to the appropriate Congressional committee when needed in connection with the nomination and confirmation of Presidential appointees.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

Appendix – Privacy Act Systems of Records

Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Records or information may be provided to the director, or his or her representative, of the Office of Government Ethics.
2. Records or information may be provided on request to the Executive Office of the President when needed in connection with the nomination of presidential appointees.
3. Records or information may be disclosed to any source when necessary to obtain information relevant to a conflict-of-interest investigation or determination.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Preprinted forms and paper folders. Information from the forms may also be stored on magnetic tape or disk in automated office equipment.

Retrievability

Records are retrieved by the individual's name within each organizational component.

Safeguards

Records are kept in secure file cabinets to which only authorized personnel have access. Access to computer data is restricted to personnel having an official need for access.

Retention and Disposal

Records are maintained for 6 years, or longer, if needed in connection with a pending investigation. Disposal is by shredding or burning.

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL
LAW DEPARTMENT
UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
475 L'ENFANT PLZ SW

Notification Procedure

An employee wanting to inquire whether this system of records contains information about him or her or to gain access to information pertaining to him or her must direct an inquiry to the head of the facility where employed. Headquarters employees must submit requests to the system manager. Inquiries must contain full name and place of employment.

Record Access Procedures

See Notification Procedure above. Individuals requesting access must also comply with Postal Service Privacy Act regulations on verification of identity and access to records (39 CFR 266.6).

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification Procedure above. Since the information in these records is updated by the subject individual on a periodic basis, most record corrections can be accomplished by filing supplemental statements. However, individuals may obtain information on the procedures for contesting the records under the provisions of the Privacy Act by contacting the system manager.

Record Source Categories

Information in this system of records is provided by:

- a. The subject individual or by a designated individual such as a trustee, attorney, accountant, or relative.
- b. Ethics officials who review the statements to make conflict of interest determinations.
- c. Individuals alleging conflicts of interests and persons contacted during any investigation of the allegations.

System Name

Personnel Records — Public Financial Disclosure Reports for Executive Branch Personnel, 120.061

System Location

Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters.

Note: The records in this system are part of a government-wide system, OGE/GOVT-1, that is managed by the U.S. Office of Government Ethics. See 55 Fed. Reg. 6328 (1990).

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Senior-level employees as determined by the criteria in Section 201(f) of the Ethics in Government Act consisting of the following persons: postmaster general, deputy postmaster general, the ethical conduct officer, administrative law judges, each employee whose basic rate is equal to or greater than 120% of the rate of basic pay for the first step of GS 15.

Note: Records pertaining to the Governors of the Postal Service are maintained as a part of System USPS 120.060 and are not contained in this system.

Categories of Records in the System

Public Financial Disclosure Report (Standard Form 278, or such other forms as may be prescribed by the director, Office of Government Ethics) containing the following types of information: income from sources other than the Postal Service; interests in property, and purchases, sales and exchange of property; gifts and reimbursements; liabilities; positions held, relations with other employers. Position descriptions, opinions of counsel and other information related to review of reports and to conflict of interest determinations.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

Title I of Ethics in Government Act of 1978 Pub. L. 95-521 and Ethics Reform Act of 1989, Pub. L. 101-194, as amended.

Purpose(s)

These records are maintained to meet the public financial reporting requirements imposed by the Ethics in Government Act on high-level executive personnel. The reports serve to deter conflicts of interest and to identify potential conflicts of interest by providing for a systematic disclosure and review of the financial interests of current and prospective officers and employees. To enable the director of the Office of Government Ethics to ensure that these purposes are met, records kept by the Postal Service are made available to that office on request. Records may also be furnished to the Executive Office of the President and to the appropriate congressional committee when needed in connection with the nomination and confirmation of presidential appointees.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Financial Disclosure Reports (SF 278) are available to members of the public for inspection and copying upon written request made in accordance with Section 205 of the Ethics in Government Act, Pub. L. 95-521, as amended.
2. Records or information may be provided to the Director, or his or her representative, of the Office of Government Ethics.
3. Records or information may be provided on request to the Executive Office of the President when needed in connection with the nomination of Presidential appointees.
4. Records or information may be disclosed to any source when necessary to obtain information relevant to a conflict-of-interest investigation or determination.
5. In accordance with Section 105 of the Ethics in Government Act, as amended, and subject to the limitations contained in Section 208(d)(1) of Title 18, U.S. Code, any determination granting an exemption pursuant to Section 208(b)(1) of Title 18, U.S. Code, may be disclosed to any requesting person.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System information. Some of this information is part of USPS 050.020, Finance Records — Payroll System.

3. Reference copies of all discipline or adverse actions. These include letters of warning; notices of removal, suspension, reduction in grade or pay; letters of decisions; and documents relating to these actions. These are used only to refute inaccurate statements by witnesses before a judicial or administrative body.

Note: This system also has an automated tracking system that is used primarily to control and document disciplinary actions and to provide statistical information.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 1001, 1005; 42 U.S.C. 2000e-16. Executive Orders 11478 and 11590.

Purpose(s)

Used by administrators, managers, selection review committees, and individual employee supervisors to perform routine personnel functions.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. To disclose to prospective employers the following information about a specifically identified current or former postal employee: (a) grade, (b) duty status, (c) length of service, (d) job title, (e) salary, and (f) date and reason for separation, limited to one of the following terms: retired, resigned, or separated.
2. To provide statistical reports to Congress, agencies, and the public on characteristics of the Postal Service work force.
3. To provide data for the compilation of a local seniority list that is used by management to make decisions pertaining to appointment and assignments among craft personnel. The list is posted in local facilities where it may be reviewed by Postal Service employees.
4. To transfer to the Office of Personnel Management on retirement of an employee information necessary for processing retirement benefits.
5. Disclosure of relevant and necessary information pertaining to an employee's participation in health, life insurance, and retirement programs may be made to the Office of Personnel Management and private carriers for the provision of related benefits to the participant (also see USPS 050.020).
6. Disclosure of minority designation codes may be made to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission for the oversight and enforcement of federal EEO regulations.
7. Disclosure of records of discipline relating to individual employees may be made to state employment security agencies at the initial determination level of the unemployment compensation claim process.

8. Information pertaining to an employee who is a retired military officer will be furnished to the appropriate service finance center as required under the provisions of the Dual Compensation Act.
9. May be disclosed to a federal or state agency, providing parent locator services or to other authorized persons as defined by Pub. L. 93-647.
10. Records in this system are subject to review by an independent certified public accountant during an official audit of Postal Service finances.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Paper files, preprinted forms, official personnel folders, and magnetic tape and other computer storage devices.

Retrievability

Employee name and location of employment and Social Security number.

Safeguards

Folders are maintained in locked cabinets to which only authorized personnel have access; automated records are protected by computer passwords and tape or disk library physical security.

Retention and Disposal

1. Official Personnel Folder (OPF) Records. Records maintained on the right side of the OPF are considered to be permanent and are maintained until the employee is separated. They are then sent to the National Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, MO, for storage or to the federal agency to which the individual transfers employment.
2. Temporary Records of Individual Employees. These records are maintained on the left side of the OPF and are destroyed when 2 years old, upon separation, or upon transfer of employee, if the temporary record is relevant only to the losing postal installation, whichever is sooner.
3. Original or copies of discipline or adverse actions. These are maintained on the left side of the OPF for up to 2 years or longer, if additional or more recent disciplinary action has been taken. After 2 years, the employee may request the disciplinary record be purged from the OPF. Records that support a Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action, that documents the separation of an employee for cause or the resignation of an employee pending charges are considered permanent records and are maintained on the right side of the OPF. These records may not be purged at the request of an employee.
4. Reference copies of discipline or adverse actions. These records are kept for historical purposes and are not to be used for decisions about the employee. The retention of these records may not exceed 10 years beyond the employee's separation date. The records are maintained longer if the employee is rehired during the 10-year period.

5. Disciplinary Tracking System Records. These are maintained until research purposes are served, not to exceed 30 years. Destruction is by electronic erasure.

its use in determining the employee and organizational benefits of the program, but those data will have no personal identifiers affixed to it.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Information in these records may be provided to the Office of Personnel Management in making determinations related to:
 - (a) Veterans' preference.
 - (b) Disability retirement.
 - (c) Benefit entitlement.
2. Information in these records may be provided to officials of the following federal agencies responsible for administering benefit programs
 - (a) Office of Workers' Compensation Programs.
 - (b) Retired military pay centers.
 - (c) Department of Veterans Affairs.
 - (d) Social Security Administration.
3. Records in this system may be disclosed to an employee's private treating physician and to medical personnel retained by the Postal Service to provide medical services for an employee's health or physical condition related to employment.
4. May be disclosed to an outside medical service when that organization performs the physical examinations and submits the evaluation to the Postal Service under a contract with the Postal Service as part of an established Postal Service health program for the purpose of determining a postal employee's fitness for duty.
5. May be disclosed to the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Department of Labor, when needed by that organization to perform its duties properly under 29 CFR Part 19.
6. May be disclosed to the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health when needed by that organization to perform its duties properly under 29 CFR Part 19.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Preprinted forms, paper files (Official Medical Folders), and magnetic tapes or disks (candidate medical assessments); preprinted forms, paper files, and hard copy computer storage (Corporate Health and Fitness Center records) are stored in limited access areas with appropriate physical and environmental controls to ensure the confidentiality and physical integrity of the information.

Retrievability

Employee name, Social Security number, and location.

Safeguards

Printed copies of medical records are kept in locked file cabinets with controlled physical access, restricted to individuals who need to know the information in performance of their job functions. Access to computer data is restricted to authorized personnel with a need to know the information in the performance of their job functions and is protected through computer password controls and data encryption. Access to automated Corporate Health and Fitness Center records is restricted by password protection to medical screening personnel and health and fitness specialists under contract to operate the Corporate Health and Fitness Program facility at Headquarters.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Employee Medical Folder (EMF) — Medical records considered permanent are maintained until the employee is separated from the Postal Service, and then the records are sent to the National Personnel Records Center for storage or to the federal agency that now employs the individual. The records are kept for 30 years from the date the employee separates from federal service. Security and privacy of the EMF is safeguarded by the processes and procedures described in Postal Service Management Instruction EL-860-98-2, Employee Medical Records. Computer data is archived from the active database to a history database after 3 years and retained in the history database indefinitely.
- b. Candidate medical information of failed eligibles (and those who cleared but ultimately declined the offer) — Candidate medical information — which includes the medical history questionnaire, answer sheet containing the candidate's responses, copy of job application, job description and functional requirements, and supporting medical information acquired in the process of reaching a medical determination of ability to work — is retained in the medical office and destroyed by shredding after 2 years. Computer data are archived from the active database to a history database after 3 years and retained in the history database indefinitely.
- c. Authorization for Medical Attention (Form 3956) — The form is destroyed after 2 years.
- d. Corporate Health and Fitness Center records — The record is retained by the contractor operating the Health and Fitness Center until termination of the contract, at which time the record must be returned to the Postal Service.

System Name

Personnel Records — Personnel Research and Test Validation Records, 120.120

System Location

Postal Service Headquarters, Washington, DC (paper records only); National Test Administration Center, Merrifield, VA, and contractor sites (paper and ADP records); and Information Systems Service Centers.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Applicants for postal employment and Postal Service employee applicants for reassignment and/or promotion; current employees whose work records or solicited responses are involved in research projects.

Categories of Records in the System

Records are hard copy (paper, including scannable answer sheets) or ADP (magnetic tape, disk) and may contain the following information, depending on personnel research or test validation study: applicant and research subject demographic data, including race, sex, national origin, employment status, date of birth, and geographical location; and identification data, including name, Social Security number, or respondent identification code; project identification code, batch codes, information collection dates; applicant and research subject responses to, or evaluation on, personnel assessment instruments; applicant and research data and laboratory data and analysis about performance, work suitability, physical conditions, disciplinary incidents, awards, attendance, training, or other work-related data, when used with personnel research; and job analysis data, including respondent identification and evaluation of job activities and employee qualifications.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401, 1001.

Purpose(s)

To support research and development efforts in the construction and use of personnel assessment instruments (such as tests and performance evaluation forms); the analysis of employee behavior, characteristics, interests, attitudes, and physical condition affecting productivity; and the evaluation and improvement of personnel management practices. Data are collected when specific research projects are undertaken (such as pilot tryouts of personnel selection methods and job attitude surveys). Race and national origin data are used to evaluate any adverse impact of the selection process. Use of these race and national origin data is limited to research projects and test validation conducted by the Postal Service. No individual personnel decisions are made in the use of these research records. Many data are collected under conditions ensuring their confidentiality which will be protected. Personnel information in this system of records is used primarily by the personnel research staff of the U.S. Postal Service. Reports and analyses that result from use of this system, or use of this system in conjunction with system USPS 120.121, are based on aggregated data, with no identification of the individuals involved.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, and l listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. To disclose information to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission for use in determining the existence of adverse effects in the total selection process, in reviewing allegations of discrimination, or in assessing the status of compliance with federal law.
2. Disclosure of information about applicants for employment with the Postal Service may be made to the Selective Service System (SSS) under approved computer matching efforts in which either the Postal Service or SSS acts as the matching agency. Disclosure will be limited to only those data elements considered relevant to identify individuals eligible for registration under the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 451 et seq.), to determine whether those individuals have complied with registration requirements, and to enforce compliance when necessary.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Paper files, magnetic tape, and disks.

Retrievability

Depending on the research project, employee name; Social Security number; batch number; or employee's date of examination, location, or respondent identification code.

Safeguards

These records are maintained in closed file cabinets in a secure facility. Access to computer data is restricted to authorized personnel.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Hard copy — Paper response forms (scannable answer sheets, booklets) are destroyed on transcription to magnetic media, usually within 6 months of collection.
- b. Magnetic Tape — Retention is dependent on the type of research project and is not to exceed 30 years — DO NOT TRANSFER TO A FEDERAL RECORDS CENTER.

USPS 120.220 System Name Personnel Records — Arbitration Case Files, 120.220

System Location

Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters and field offices, area offices, and districts.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Employees involved in labor arbitrations.

Note: These files are a Privacy Act system of records only to the extent that personally identifying information about a person is retrieved from the files by use of the individual's name or other personal identifier. Generally, information in litigation files is retrieved by reference to the case name or number. In those instances where the case name or number is not the personal identifier of an individual, the file is not a Privacy Act system of records.

Categories of Records in the System

Documents relating to proceedings when the Postal Service is a party in labor arbitration cases. Includes disciplinary and contract grievances, and appeals of bargaining unit employees, formal pleadings and memoranda of law, excerpts from grievance files, supporting documents, notes, and case analyses prepared by Postal Service advocates and other personnel, and correspondence and telephone records.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401, 409(d).

Purpose(s)

To provide advice and representation to the Postal Service in labor arbitration cases.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Information in litigation records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceedings, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
2. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.
3. A record may be transferred, and information from it disclosed, to any federal agency, as may be appropriate for the coordinated defense or prosecution of related litigation or the resolution of related claims or issues without litigation.

4. A record may be disclosed in a federal, state, local, or foreign judicial or administrative proceeding in accordance with the procedures and practices governing such proceeding.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

- b. Counsel(s) or other representative(s) for parties in administrative litigation other than Postal Service.
- c. Other individuals involved in appeals.

Source documents contain the formal case file, investigative reports, and other records relevant to the case.

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

Records or information in this system that have been compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding are exempt from individual access under 5 U.S.C. 552a(d)(5). In addition, the Postal Service has claimed exemption from certain provisions of the Act for several of its other systems of records as permitted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). See 39 CFR 266.9. To the extent that copies of exempted records from those other systems are incorporated into this system, the exemptions applicable to the original primary system must continue to apply to the incorporated records.

USPS 120.240

System Name

Personnel Records — Garnishment Case Files, 120.240

System Location

Personnel Offices within Postal Service facilities and the Minneapolis Information Systems Service Center.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

USPS 150.010

System Name

Records and Information Management Records — Information Disclosure Accounting Records (Freedom of Information Act), 150.010

System Location

Records office, Postal Service Headquarters, and records custodians at all Postal Service facilities.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Individuals who submit inquiries and requests for information (many of which are made pursuant to the FOIA) about the general activities of the Postal Service.

Note: This system may contain inquiries and requests regarding information in other Postal Service systems of records that are subject to the Privacy Act. As a result, information about individuals from other systems may, when appropriate, become part of this system.

Categories of Records in the System

Name and address of requester, request letters, referral letters, internal memoranda, response letters, and copies of records requested.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401, 412; 5 U.S.C. 552; Pub. L. 93-502.

Purpose(s)

To enable records custodians to respond to requests from members of the public for Postal Service records and to comply with the reporting requirements of the FOIA.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Records or information may be provided to any source from which the Postal Service requests additional information (to the extent necessary to identify the requesting individual, inform the source of the purpose of the request, or to identify the type of information requested), where necessary to obtain information relevant to the Postal Service's disclosure determination under the FOIA.

- Records or information may be provided to the originating federal agency in connection with a referral of an FOIA request to that agency for its disclosure determination.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders. Response letters may also be temporarily stored on magnetic disk in automated office equipment. Abbreviated or summarized information may be stored in automated equipment.

Retrievability

Chronologically by year and alphabetically by name of the requester, except in those instances where a requester has made his or her request through an attorney or agent. In the latter case, the name of the attorney or agent might appear as the requester.

Safeguards

Case files and magnetic disks are stored in secure file cabinets. Computer access is restricted by the use of passwords. Access to all storage media is limited to personnel whose official duties require access.

Retention and Disposal

Records maintained by custodians and the Records Office are disposed of 6 years from date of final response to requester. Files may be transferred to Postal Service general counsel (FOIA appeals officer) on request. When this is done, files may become a part of the Appeals Case Files (see USPS 150.015). USPS 150.015

System Name

Records and Information Management Records — Freedom of Information Act Appeals and Litigation Records, 150.015

System Location

Civil Practice Section, Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

The system encompasses all individuals who submit administrative appeals or bring suits against the Postal Service under the FOIA on account of denials of access to records maintained by the Postal Service. This system may contain inquiries and requests regarding information in other Postal Service systems of records that are subject to the Privacy Act. As a result, information about individuals from other systems may, when appropriate, become part of this system.

Note: These files are a Privacy Act system of records only to the extent that personally identifying information about an individual is retrieved from the files by use of the individual's name or other personal identifier. Generally, information in litigation files is retrieved by reference to the case name or number. In those instances where the case name or number is not the personal identifier on an individual, the file is not a Privacy Act system of records.

Categories of Records in the System

The system contains correspondence and other documents related to administrative appeals made by individuals to the General Counsel for information under the provisions of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. 552) including copies of appeal letters, appeal decisions, initial request and decision letters, internal memoranda, referral letters, and copies of records requested under the FOIA. Litigation case files may contain the aforementioned types of records as well as pleadings, memoranda of law, notes and case analyses prepared by attorneys and other personnel, and other documents incidental to the litigation.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

5 U.S.C. 552.

Purpose(s)

To enable the General Counsel to carry out his or her duties as appellate authority, to assist in the representation of the Postal Service in FOIA-related litigation, and to comply with the reporting requirements of the FOIA.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Records or information may be provided to the U.S. Department of Justice for its coordination of responses to requests for information and to prepare reports required by 5 U.S.C. 552(d).
2. Records or information may be provided to a federal agency in order to obtain advice and recommendation about matters on which the agency has specialized experience or particular competence that may be useful to the Postal Service in making required determinations under the FOIA.
3. Records or information may be provided to any source from which the Postal Service requests additional information (to the extent necessary to identify the requesting individual, inform the source of the purpose of the request, or to identify the type of information requested), where necessary to obtain information relevant to the Postal Service disclosure determination under the FOIA.
4. Records or information may be provided to the originating federal agency in connection with a referral of an FOIA request to that agency for its disclosure determination.
5. Appeal decision letters may be made available for public inspection and copying.
6. Information in litigation records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
7. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Appeal and litigation case records are stored in paper folders. Appeal decision letters are also stored in binders and on magnetic tape or disk in automated office equipment and are maintained for public inspection in the Postal Service Library. Abbreviated or summarized information is stored on index cards and in automated equipment.

Retrievability

Chronologically by year, numerically by appeal number, and alphabetically by name of the requester except in those instances where a requester has an appeal filed in his or her behalf by an attorney or agent. In the latter case, the name of the attorney or agent might appear as the requester appellant.

Litigation case records are retrieved by the style of the civil action.

Safeguards

Appeal and litigation case files are stored in sound file cabinets under the scrutiny of Postal Service attorneys. Access is limited to personnel whose official duties require access. Library copies of appeal decision letters are available for public inspection. Access to computer data is restricted to people having an official need for access.

Retention and Disposal

Appeal decision letters are retained indefinitely. Appeal and litigation case files are retained for 10 years following the date of the final agency decision or 10 years following the final adjudication in case of a civil suit, whichever is applicable. Records are destroyed by shredding, burning, or the equivalent.

Individuals wanting to determine whether this system of records contains information about them must write to the system manager and provide the following information: the name of the individual who submitted the appeal, or the name of the attorney who submitted the appeal in the individual's behalf, and the year in which the appeal was made; or, when applicable, the name of the plaintiff in the civil action and the year in which the civil action was filed.

Record Access Procedures

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6.

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Note: Review of requests seeking amendment of records that have been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial administrative action will be limited in scope. The amendment provisions of the Act are not intended to permit the alteration of evidence presented during an adjudication, nor are they intended to provide a means for collaterally attacking the finality of a judicial or administrative decision. Review of requests for amendment of adjudicative records will be restricted to determining whether the records accurately reflect the action of the judicial or administrative body ruling on the case and will not contain a review of the merits of the action, determination, or finding.

Record Source Categories

Individuals and their attorneys who submit FOIA requests and appeals, Postal Service officials who respond to FOIA requests, other sources whom the Postal Service believes have information pertinent to a decision on the FOIA request or appeal, other agencies referring requests to the Postal Service, and pertinent records from other Postal Service systems of records.

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

1. Records or information may be provided to any source from which the Postal Service requests additional information (to the extent necessary to identify the requesting individual, inform the source of the purpose of the request, or to identify the type of information requested), where necessary to obtain information relevant to a Postal Service decision about a Privacy Act request.

2. Records may be disseminated to a federal agency that originally furnished the records for the purpose of permitting a decision on access or correction to be made by that agency, or for the purpose of consulting with that agency about the propriety of access or correction.
3. Records or information may be disseminated to any appropriate federal, state, local, foreign agency, or other appropriate source for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of information that is the subject of an individual's request for amendment or correction.

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6.

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Note: The amendment provisions for this system are not intended to permit a person a second opportunity to request amendment of a record that was the subject of the initial Privacy Act amendment request merely because the record has been incorporated into this system as a result of the appeal process. That is, after an individual has requested amendment of a specific record in a Postal Service system under provisions of the Privacy Act, that specific record may itself become part of this system of case records. A person may not subsequently request amendment of that specific record again simply because a copy of the record has become part of the second system of records. Generally, review of requests seeking amendment of records that have been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial administrative action will be limited. The amendment provisions of the Act are not intended to permit the alteration of evidence presented in the course of an adjudication, nor are they intended to provide a means for collaterally attacking the finality of a judicial or administrative decision. Review of requests for amendment of adjudicative records will be restricted to determining whether the records accurately reflect the action of the judicial or administrative body ruling on the case and will not contain a review of the merits of the action, determination, or finding.

System Name Records and Information Management Records — Computer Logon ID Records, 150.030

System Location

Computer logon ID records are maintained at all postal facilities and certain contractor sites that access Postal Service computers. The records are maintained at the site where the logon ID has been installed. In addition, these records are part of a database of an internal computer security package that uses them in conjunction with rules to control access.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Users of Postal Service computer systems who sign on with a computer logon ID. These are primarily Postal Service employees (including temporary and casual) and contractor employees but may include nonpostal individuals.

Categories of Records in the System

Requests for computer access and computer logon ID and other access control records. These records contain identifying user information such as name, Social Security number, job title, BA Code, work telephone number, and address; employing facility finance number; the name of the data or application systems the user may access, and the level of access granted; user screening and/or security clearances; verification of status of contractor employee; and approvals by Information Systems security personnel.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401; Pub. L. 100-235, Computer Security Act of 1987.

Purpose(s)

To assign computer logon IDs by which access to data and/or files on computer systems is limited to authorized individuals through the use of computer security access control products. Used by computer security officers in determining various schemes and control of user computer logon IDs; as a positive user identifier in resolving access problems by telephone; and by postal inspectors and authorized personnel in monitoring compliance with access rules.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Paper records that include preprinted forms and lists. Summary information from paper records is stored on magnetic disks or tapes in information systems equipment.

Retrievability

Name, logon ID, and Social Security number of individual who has been assigned a computer logon ID.

Safeguards

Hard copy records are maintained within lockable filing cabinets under the general scrutiny of designated postal personnel (such as Information Systems Security Office) responsible for security of the information systems to which they pertain. Access to automated records is restricted by authorized access code (password).

Retention and Disposal

Retained for 1 year after computer access privileges are canceled and then destroyed by shredding (paper records) or deletion (automated records).

USPS 190.010

System Name

Litigation Records — Miscellaneous Civil Action and Administrative Proceeding Case Files, 190.010

System Location

Law Department, Postal Service Headquarters and field offices.

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

Individuals involved in litigation or formal administrative proceedings to which the Postal Service is a party or in which information or testimony is sought from Postal Service sources. This system contains only those litigation matters that are not specifically in other Postal Service systems that cover particular litigation subject areas.

Note: These files are a Privacy Act system of records only to the extent that personally identifying information about a person is retrieved from the files by use of the individual's name or other personal identifier. Generally, information in litigation files is retrieved by reference to the case name or number; in those instances where the case name or number is not the personal identifier of an individual, the file is not a Privacy Act system of records.

Categories of Records in the System

Formal pleadings, and briefs, investigative reports, exhibits and other documentary evidence, affidavits, discovery documents, decisions and orders, memoranda of law, miscellaneous notes and case analyses prepared by Postal Service attorneys and other personnel, correspondence and telephone records, and other relevant documents.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 204, 401, 409(d); 39 CFR Subchapter N.

Purpose(s)

This information is used to provide legal advice and representation to the Postal Service.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service's published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. Information contained in these records is public to the extent that the documents have been filed in a court or public administrative proceeding, unless the court or other adjudicative body has ordered otherwise. Such public information, including information about the nature, status, and disposition of the proceeding, may be disclosed to any individual, unless it is determined that release of specific information in the context of a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
2. A record may be transferred and information from it disclosed to any federal agency as may be appropriate for the coordinated defense or prosecution of related litigation or the resolution of related claims or issues without litigation.
3. A record may be disclosed in a federal, state, local, or foreign judicial or administrative proceeding under the procedures and practices governing such proceeding.
4. When considered appropriate, records in this system may be referred to a bar association or similar federal, state, or local licensing or regulatory authority for possible disciplinary action.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders and on magnetic tape or disk in automated office equipment.

Retrievability

By case name or by case or docket number. Although case files may contain items of information about particular individuals, there is not necessarily a means for retrieving information about a particular individual by the individual's name or other personal identifier.

Safeguards

Folders including paper documents are kept in secure filing cabinets under the scrutiny of Postal Service attorneys. Computer terminals and tape/disk files are in a secured area, and access is restricted to personnel having an official need.

Retention and Disposal

Selected records are retained for as long as subject matter has value for reference and research purposes. All other records are retained in accordance with the applicable Postal Service Retention Schedule. Paper records are destroyed by shredding or burning, and computer tape/disk records are erased.

Notification Procedure

Individuals wanting to determine whether this system of records contains information about them should write to the system manager and provide their name and current address, the case number and court of record, if known, the approximate date the action was instituted, and a brief description of the nature of the action.

Record Access Procedures

Requests for access must be made in accordance with the Notification Procedure above and the Postal Service Privacy Act regulations regarding access to records and verification of identity under 39 CFR 266.6. The right to access may be limited by various provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a, including subsection (d)(5).

Contesting Record Procedures

See Notification and Record Access Procedures above.

Note: Review of requests seeking amendment of records that have been the subject of a judicial or quasi-judicial administrative action will be limited in scope. The amendment provisions of the Act are not intended to permit the alteration of evidence presented during an adjudication, nor are they intended to provide a means for collaterally attacking the finality of a judicial or administrative decision. Review of requests for amendment of adjudicative records will be restricted to determining whether the records accurately reflect the action of the judicial or administrative body ruling on the case, and will not contain a review of the merits of the action, determination, or finding.

Record Source Categories

Individuals involved in the proceedings, their attorneys or other representatives, agency officials, law enforcement agencies, witnesses, and relevant records.

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

Records or information in this system that have been compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action or proceeding are exempt from individual access under 5 U.S.C. 552a(d)(5). In addition, the Postal Service has claimed exemptions from certain provisions of the Act for several of its other systems of records as permitted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j) and (k). See 39 CFR 266.9. To the extent that copies of exempt records from those other systems are incorporated into this system, the exemptions applicable to the original primary system must continue to apply to the incorporated records.

USPS 300.010 System Name Office of Inspector General — Investigative File System, 300.010

System Locations

Office of the Inspector General (OIG):

1. Headquarters, and
2. respective OIG field offices (see addresses at end of system notice).

Categories of Individuals Covered by the System

- a. Subjects of investigations, unsolicited information, surveillance; complainants, informants, witnesses; and other individuals related to investigations.
- b. Applicants and current and former Postal Service personnel and contractors and individuals providing information related to employment suitability checks on those individuals.
- c. Applicants for and appointees to sensitive positions in the Postal Service and individuals providing information related to security clearance checks on those individuals.

Categories of Records in the System

Information within this system relates to OIG investigations carried out under applicable statutes, regulations, policies, and procedures. The investigations may relate to criminal, civil, or administrative matters, including personnel suitability and security clearance. Generally, investigative case files are physically located in the responsible OIG field office or at Headquarters. These files may contain investigative reports, background data including arrest records, statements of informants and witnesses, laboratory reports of evidence analysis, search warrants, summons and subpoenas, and other information related to the investigation. Personal data in the system may consist of fingerprints, handwriting samples, reports of confidential informants, physical identifying data, voiceprints, polygraph tests, photographs, and individual personnel and payroll information. OIG database systems contain additional or summary duplicative case files and other information in support of investigations. In addition, OIG Headquarters and field offices maintain reference files and indexes, as needed, for quick access in day-to-day operations. The specific authority for the OIG to investigate postal offenses and civil matters relating to the Postal Service is conferred at 39 U.S.C. 202(e)(1) – (3) and 404(a)(7); 18 U.S.C. 3061; and 5 U.S.C. App 3. In the exercise of that authority, the OIG conducts investigations under all appropriate federal statutes and administrative rules.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 202 and 404, 18 U.S.C. 3061, and 5 U.S.C. App. 3.

Purpose(s)

To provide information related to investigation of criminal, civil, or administrative matters, including employee and contractor background investigations.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, Including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses

General routine use statements a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, j, k, l, and m listed in the prefatory statement at the beginning of the Postal Service’s published system notices apply to this system. Other routine uses are as follows:

1. When conducting any official investigation or during a trial or hearing or the preparation of a trial or hearing, a record may be disseminated to an agency, organization, or individual when reasonably necessary to elicit information relating to the investigation, trial, or hearing or to obtain the cooperation of a witness or informant.
2. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to a federal, state, or local administrative or regulatory proceeding or hearing, in accordance with the procedures governing such proceeding or hearing.
3. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated in an appropriate federal, state, local, or foreign court or grand jury proceeding, in accordance with established constitutional, substantive, or procedural law or practice.
4. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to an actual or potential party or his or her attorney for the purpose of negotiation or discussion on such matters as settlement of the case or matter, plea bargaining, or informal discovery proceedings.
5. A record relating to a case or matter that has been referred by an agency for investigation, prosecution, or enforcement or that involves a case or matter within the jurisdiction of an agency may be disseminated to such agency to notify the agency of the status of the case or matter, or of any decision or determination that has been made, or to make such other inquiries and reports as are necessary during the processing of the case or matter.

6. A record relating to a person held in custody pending or during arraignment, trial, sentence, or extradition proceedings or after conviction may be disseminated to a federal, state, local, or foreign prison, probation, parole, or pardon authority or to any other agency or individual involved with the maintenance, transportation, or release of such a person.
7. A record relating to a case or matter may be disseminated to a foreign country under an international treaty or convention entered into and ratified by the United States or under an executive agreement.
8. A record may be disseminated to a federal, state, local, foreign, or international law enforcement agency to assist in the general crime prevention and detection efforts of the recipient agency or to provide investigative leads to such agency.
9. A record from this system may be disclosed to the public, news media, trade associations, or organized groups to provide information of interest to the public about the activities and the accomplishments of the Postal Service or its employees.
10. A record may be disseminated to a foreign country, through the United States Department of State or directly to the representative of such country, to the extent necessary to assist such country in apprehending or returning a fugitive to a jurisdiction that seeks that individual’s return.
11. A record may be disclosed to members of the American Insurance Association Index System to provide them with information relating to accidents and injuries.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Case records are stored in paper folders. Abbreviated, summary, and identifying information pertaining to cases and criminal intelligence information are stored on computer storage media.

Retrievability

Name of the individual who is the subject of the file.

Safeguards

Investigative records are maintained in locked file cabinets, safes, or secured areas under the scrutiny of OIG personnel who have been subjected to security clearance procedures. Access is further restricted by computer passwords when stored in electronic format. Automated records can only be accessed through authorized terminals by authorized users. Computer software has been designed to protect data by controlling access, logging actions, and reporting exceptions and violations.

Retention and Disposal

- a. Records are maintained 1 to 15 years, depending on type. Exceptions may be granted for longer retention in specific instances. Paper records are destroyed by burning, pulping, or shredding. Computer tape/disk records are erased or destroyed.
- b. Duplicate copies of investigative memorandums maintained by postal officials other than OIG are retained in accordance with a generally applicable

Systems Exempted From Certain Provisions of the Act

The Postal Service has established regulations at 39 CFR 266.9 that exempt information contained in this system of records from various provisions of the Privacy Act depending on the purpose for which the information was gathered and for which it will be used. Compliance with the disclosure (5 U.S.C. 552a(d)) and other subsections of the Act are not compatible with investigative practice and would substantially compromise the efficacy and integrity of OIG operations. The purposes for which records are kept within this system and the exemptions applicable to those records are as follows:

- a. Criminal law enforcement — Under 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), information compiled for this purpose is exempt from all the provisions of the Act except the following sections: (b), (c)(1) and (2), (e)(4)(A) through (F), (e)(6), (7), (9), (10), (11), and (i).
- b. Non-criminal investigatory — under 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(2), material compiled for law enforcement purposes (and not exempted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2)) is exempted from the following provisions of the Act: (c)(3), (d), (e)(1), (e)(4)(G), (H) and (I), and (f).
- c. Background investigations — material compiled solely for the purpose of a background security investigation is exempted by 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5) from the following provisions of the Act: (c)(3), (d), (e)(1), (e)(4)(G), (H) and (I), and (f).

3. Demographic information: designation as individual/family/business.
4. Customer preferences: permanent or temporary move, mail forwarding instructions, service requests and responses.
5. Customer inquiries and comments: description of service requests and responses.
6. Records from service providers, including for move-related services, such as name of provider; customer name, number, and contact information; information related to products purchased, billing, and customer service; and records for identity verification.
7. Optional customer information: information a customer chooses to save to apply to future transactions, such as names, addresses, proof of identification, billing, and other information used to request a service.
8. Protective Orders.

Authority for Maintenance of the System

39 U.S.C. 401, 403, and 404.

Purpose(s)

1. To provide mail forwarding and change of address services.
2. To provide address correction services.
3. To provide address information to the American Red Cross about a customer who has been relocated because of disaster.
4. To provide customers the ability to contact providers of move-related services (e.g., moving vans or supplies).

Routine Uses of Records in the System

In addition to the standard routine uses for customer-related systems, the following additional routine uses also apply:

- a. Disclosure upon request. The new address of a specific business or organization that has filed a permanent change of address order may be furnished to any individual on request.

Note: The new address of an individual or family will not be furnished pursuant to this routine use, but only when authorized by one of the standard routine uses listed above or one of the specific routine uses listed below.

- b. Disclosure for Address Correction. Disclosure of any customer's new permanent address may be made to a mailer, only if the mailer is in possession of the old address: from the National Change of Address file, if the mailer is seeking corrected addresses for their mailing list; from the Computerized Forwarding System, if a mailpiece is undeliverable as addressed; or from the Locatable Address Correction System, if an address designation has been changed or assigned. Copies of change of address orders may not be furnished.
- c. Disclosure for Voter Registration. Any customer's permanent change of address may be disclosed to a duly formed election board or registration commission using permanent voter registration. Copies of change of address orders may be furnished.
- d. Disclosure to Government Agency. Any customer's permanent or temporary change of address information may be disclosed to a Federal, state, or local government agency upon prior written certification that the information is required for the performance of its duties. A copy of the change of address order may be furnished. Name and address information may be disclosed to government planning authorities, or firms under contract with those authorities, if an address designation has been changed or assigned.
- e. Disclosure to Law Enforcement Agency. Any customer's permanent or temporary change of address information may be disclosed to a law enforcement agency for oral requests made through the Postal Inspection Service, but only after the Postal Inspection Service has confirmed that the information is needed for a criminal investigation. A copy of the change of address order may be furnished.
- f. Disclosure for Service of Process. Any customer's permanent or temporary change of address information may be disclosed to a person empowered by law to serve legal process, or the attorney for a party in whose behalf service will be made, or a party who is acting pro se, upon receipt of written information that meets prescribed certification requirements. Disclosure will be limited to the address of the specifically identified individual (not other family members or individuals whose names may also appear on the change of address order). A copy of the change of address order may not be furnished.
- g. Disclosure for Jury Service. Any customer's change of address information may be disclosed to a jury commission or other court official, such as a judge or court clerk, for purpose of jury service. A copy of the change of address order may be furnished.
- h. Disclosure at Customer's Request. If the customer elects, change of address information may be disclosed to government agencies or other entities, and requests for move-related services may be forwarded to the specified service provider.

Storage

Change of address orders are maintained on file at the delivery unit. They are filed alphabetically by name within a month. Records generated from the source document are recorded on the Forwarding Control system file server and on 8-mm tapes at Computerized Forwarding System units. Electronic change of address records and related service records are also stored on disk and/or magnetic tape in a secured environment. Change of address records are consolidated in a National Change of Address (NCOA) File at the NCSC. Selected extracts of NCOA are provided to a limited number of firms under contract or license agreement with the Postal Service. Records pertaining to move-related services are also transmitted to specific service providers, including government agencies and private companies under contract to the Postal Service.

Retrievability

Records are retrieved by the following methods:

- For paper records: by name, address, date, and ZIP Code.
- For electronic records: by name, address, date, ZIP Code, and customer number for electronic change of address and related service records; by name, address, and e-mail address for customer service records; by service provider name or number for service provider records.

Safeguards

Access to and use of these records is limited to those individuals whose official duties require such access. Contractor/licensee is subject to contract controls and unannounced onsite audits and inspection by the Postal Inspection Service.

Retention and Disposal

National change of address records are retained for 4 years from the effective date.

Records saved at the customer's option are retained until the customer notifies the Postal Service to delete the previous transaction records or the account is disabled for inactivity. The customer may request modifications to saved records at any time, and those modifications will be executed upon receipt of that request.

All other records are retained for up to 18 months.

Records are destroyed or deleted at the end of the retention period.

Policies and Practices for Storing, Retrieving, Accessing, Retaining, and Disposing of Records in the System

Storage

Automated databases, computer storage media, and paper.

Retrievability

By customer name, customer ID(s), phone number, mail or e-mail address, or job number.

Safeguards

Paper records and computer storage tapes and disks are maintained in controlled-access areas or under general supervision of program personnel. Computers containing information are located in controlled-access areas with personnel access controlled by a cipher lock system, card key system, or other physical access control method. Computer systems are protected with an installed security software package, computer logon identifications, and operating system controls including access controls, terminal and user identifications, and file management. Online data transmission is protected by encryption, dedicated lines, and authorized access codes. For shipping supplies, data is protected within a stand-alone system within a controlled-access facility.

Access to these records is limited to those persons whose official duties require such access. Contractors must provide similar protection subject to contract controls and security compliance review by the Postal Inspection Service.

Retention and Disposal

Records related to mailing online and online tracking and/or confirmation services supporting a customer order are retained for up to 30 days from completion of fulfillment of the order, unless retained longer by request of the customer. Records related to shipping services and domestic and international labels are retained for 90 days. Delivery Confirmation and return receipt records are retained for 6 months. Signature Confirmation records are retained for 1 year. ACH records are retained for up to 2 years.

Appendix – Privacy Act Systems of Records

Other customer records are retained for 3 years after the customer relationship ends.

Storage

Automated databases, computer storage media, and paper.

Retrievability

By customer name, customer ID(s), distinguished name, certificate serial number, receipt number, and transaction date.

Safeguards

For public keys, hardcopy records and computer records are stored in a building with access controlled by guards and room access controlled by card readers. Information in the database is protected by a security architecture of several levels that includes an asynchronous gateway, network firewall, operating security system, and database software security architecture. Internal access to the database is limited to the system administrator, database administrator, and designated support personnel. Key pairs are protected against cryptanalysis by encrypting the private key and by using a shared secret algorithm to protect the encryption key, and the certificate authority key is stored in a separate, tamperproof, hardware device. Activities are audited, and archived information is protected from corruption, deletion, and modification.

For authentication services and electronic postmark, electronic data is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption to a secured data center. Computer media are stored within a secured, locked room within the facility. Access to the database is limited to the system administrator, database administrator, and designated support personnel. Paper forms are stored within a secured area within locked cabinets.

Retention and Disposal

Records related to Pending Public Key Certificate Application Files are added as received to an electronic database, moved to the authorized certificate file when they are updated with the required data, and records not updated within 90 days from the date of receipt are destroyed.

Records related to the Public Key Certificate Directory are retained in an electronic database, are consistently updated, and records are destroyed as they are superseded or deleted.
